According to Mr. Boland, reservations had been made at the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel for the Irish leader, but this was denied at the hotel where the management said they had been informed Mr. De Valera would be there on Monday, but that no rooms had been reserved for him.

On his own behalf Mr. Boland gave out a statement, explaining in detail political developments in Ireland and including biographical sketches of his chief. The statement said that one of the principal reasons of Mr. De Val-to float a bond issue "which will start the new republic on a financial plane equalled by few and excelled by none."

Druggist Says Ladies Are Using Recipe of Sage Tea and Sulphur

Hair that loses its color and lustre or when it fades, turns gray, dull and lifeless, is caused by a lack of sulphur in the hair. Our grandmother made up a mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur to keep her locks dark and beautiful, and thousands of women and men who value that even color, that beautiful dark shade of hair which is so attractive, use only this old time recipe.

Nowadays we get this famous mixture improved by the addition of other ingredients by asking at any drug store for a bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound" which darkens the hair so naturally, so evenly that nobody can possibly tell it has been applied. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; but what delights the ladies with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound is that, besides beautifully darkening the hair, it is a few applications it also brings back the gloss and lustre and gives it an appearance of abundance.

GERMANS VOTE TO SIGN
of the former emperor and other German notables.

This was the stumbling block, for the Democrats could not be budged from the attitude which they held throughout a former pride in the former war lord and the belief that a revolution would break out in protest by the people should Hindenburg, Ludendorff and other idols also be humiliated.

Bernstorff Prominent Count von Bernstorff, the former ambassador at Washington, played a prominent part in the proceedings, not only as president of the German peace committee, but, according to persistent rumor, as the possible successor of Count von Brockdorff Hantzau, head of the German peace delegation, for there was a powerful group that wanted him to sugar the poetic justice of signing the terms after he had helped to bring the United States into the war.

Bernstorff, however, resisted, and after having been appointed in the morning to the cabinet headed by Herr Bauer, refused to accept the appointment or have anything to do with the matter.

Later in the day, the Centrists dropped their demand for modification of the terms and expressed their willingness to sign. The Democrats also weakened to such an extent that fifteen of their 65 members in the assembly went over to the side, in favor of signature.

The first ministry headed by Herr Bauer lasted exactly one hour. He crashed on the stubbornness of the Democrats and Bernstorff's flat refusal to head the ministry of foreign affairs. Dr. Dernburg, who had been named as minister of finance, declared he could not co-operate. The Democrats then reduced their demands to one point, on which they were adamant, namely, that the former German emperor, Hindenburg and Ludendorff must not be delivered to the Entente for trial.

Cabinet Reconstructed Eventually the Bauer cabinet was reconstructed, with Dr. Herman Muel-
