A LITERARY ASSOCIATION has been formed in connection with the Caledonian Club, of which the following are the officers.—J. W. Morrison, President; David Small and Captain S. McRae-Vice-Presidents; Æneas A. McDonald Secretary.

Last Friday evening Mr. Daniel Noonan, of Bedeque, was driving to erside with a female and three children in the sleigh, when, off Mc-Donald's point, they drove in a spring-hole, and one of the children, a boy of four years old, was drowned. The res of the party had a narrow escape.

Some time ago we mentioned the case of a Bermudian sailor who had been frostbitten at Georgetown while at work on the brigantine Columbian. It appears that the injuries he then received were ous than at first supposed, and the poor fellow, who is now a patient at the Grey Nuns' Hospital, will have to suffer the loss of both feet.

Wn know of no better illustration the success attending honorable and able business methods than the firm of D. M. Ferry & Co., Detroit, Mich., the leading seedsmen of this country. From small beginnings, thirty years ago, they have built up their man by strict adherence to their initial principle of furnishing only the best seeds obtainable. They offer to send their valuable "Annual" free to all who ex pect to buy seeds or bulbs.

Last Saturday night, at Souris, Driver McLean, of the Railway, when going to his well for a bucket of water, found one Thomas McCulloch at the bottom. Whe drawn up he had a fairy story to relat of how he got there, and was besides very wet and cold. Next day, however he was all right. McCulloch is a fishe man, a native of Souris, twenty-eight years of age, and may thank his star that Mr. McLean had occasion to visit the well, as he would doubtless hav perished before morning.

Parnell at Tipperary.

Parnell addressed a meeting in Tipperary last week. Four years ago, he said, the men of Tipperary asked him to unfurl the banner of the league there. The movement had become historic and had proved of great service to the Irish people. A similar point in the history of Ireland had now been reached. What agitation had already gained was infinitesimal, as compared with the full reward to be secured by it. Parnell said he believed that the great power of franchise recently conferred would be judiciously used, although in an alien parliament. He promised farmers full fruits of their term, and a much larger reduction than the pre-tended fair rents of the land court, which meant bankruptoy, would give them. Landlordism would soon disappear when really fair rents were obtained. He looked forward to the extension of the laborers act to give laborers a share in their national beritage, and advised the tenant farmtra, in justice to the laborers, to avoid tooksion. It was impossible, he declared, for home rule to be long delayed.
