Dungannon.

Mr Walker is visiting friends here.

Mrs Gay has gone to Exeter.

Mrs B. J. Crawford is visiting friends in Goderich.

A social in connection with the English church will be given in the drill shed June 22nd.

Rev. A. McKibbin preached his farewell sermon on Sunday evening to a large congregation in the Methodist church. He carries with him the best wishes of many friends, as he goes to his new field of labor.

Some of our young people visited

Point Farm during the week.

A strawberry social under the auspices of the Y. P. S. will be given at

A. Pentland's on the evening of the 28th of June. A good time is expected.

Lesbourn.

We were a little astray with reference to the wellbeing dug by A Clutton, and should have started 10 ft in diameter instead of circumference.

O Brown of Clinton was the guest of Mr. Foley last week.

Statute labor was done on Thos

Carney's last week.

Miss Jessie Morris, of Garbraid, is visiting here.

Mr. Thos. Carney went to court this week to answer the call as a jurymen.

Communion will be held on 1st Sunday in July. It is expected that a number of members will partake of it.

Miss Horton was in Clinton this week.

The Audience would Not Wait.

The Pall Mall Gazette tells this story of Miss Mary Anderson: While she was rehearsing the part of Juliet, an eminent physician, an intimate friend, was present.

The performance delighted him till the conclusion of the play, when his countenance wore a troubled expression.

When it was over he went up to the actress. "My dear young lady," he said,

"You are wrong in one of your effects.

Don't you know a corpse doesn't stiffen for at least six hours after death?" "My dear doctor," responded Mary, slowly, speaking in deep, rich tones, and adopting a strong American twang, "do you think I am going to keep my audience waiting for six hours while I stiffen."

Sunlight.

No article of furniture that will not stand a sunlight should be put in a room for every room in a dwelling should have the window so arranged that sometime during the day the sunlight may enter freely into the apartments. The importance of admitting the light of the sun freely to all parts of our dwelling cannot be too highly estimated. Indeed, perfect health is nearly as dependent on pure sunlight as it is on pure air, except when so bright as to be uncomfortable to the eyes. And warmth should be in bright sunlight. A sun-bath is of more importance in preserving a healthful condition of the body than is generally understood. It is a well established fact that the people who live much in the sun are generally stronger and more healthy than those whose occupations deprive them of sunlight.

Robert J. Burdette, who has more friends and fewer enemies than any living writer in his peculiar branch of historical literature, has been elected a deacon in his Baptist church at Lower Merion, Pa.; and he will not be a mere figurehead in the office either. When Mr Burdette was summing in the Adirondacks last year he was hunted down in his retreat by the trustees of a little

Baptist church about four miles from his camp, who insisted that, in the absence of any regular pastor, he should fill the pulpit. With his customary good nature he complied, and for several successive

Sundays the voice that had many a time roused the mirth of crowded halls as he told the story of Tom and Laura in the "Rise and Fall of the Moustache" was heard in the pulpit of the little church.

He preached not only a full but a free salvation in every sense of the word, for
