e in London, Ont. was a genuine gypsy fortunetown last week. Roberts left on Thursday fo: en route to Japan. He panied by A. H. Barber. lford has gone to the coast Millen, of Gaetz Valley wn last week for a few days lage took place on Wednesith Helen Campbell to Archi AcKinnon at the residence of Campbell, father of the he happy pair left on the train for Calgary, where they d their int of Friday night's quadb dance being a postponed next dance will be held next order to carry the schedule tly dances as arranged. or that J. B. Gaetz had captorious Bill Miner has Mifflin, who has been forehe town works for the past has again taken up police of Meeres having his time th the fire department and Mr. Mifflin and Chief mie will divide the du-

eer. Nov. 24.

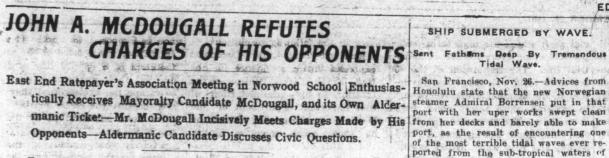

ROM STOVELL'S

Bring Your Butter and Eggs.

PERS

Fort William our ices, Government mpt adjustments. ion, or will wire

From Wednesday's Bulletin. tained some lots in block 9 and ob-Norwood school was packed to the tained an option on some other adcandidates for aldermanic honors in Mr. McDougall.

the approaching elections. The tem-per of the meeting was the finest and the deal was off and asked him what tuated by a strong enthusiasm for terms he would give the city. He the policy as laid down in the East said he would do better for the city End platform. The speakers though than for the C. P. R. With the C. P.

by the audience. chairman, and by apt anecdote and "It would be a good thing if you through space for hundreds of yards. stirring peroration directed the ten-J. Travis Barker was a splendid McDougall.

chairman, "with a sidewalk, a drain other. for water and sewers is more to a workingman than a palace in an unknown Utonia W. H. Clegg was the first speaker. Dealing with the city's utilities he He deplored the present condition of aid he was in favor of an advanced the civic administration. He review- and same policy in this respect. But ed and defended the platform of the 'he wanted them to pay. At present, East End ticket and declared for a according to the city's methods more detailed financial statement and bookkeeping no one could tell whethe extension of the franchise to ten- ther our investments in our public ants. Local improvements, he held, utilities were paying or not, and he should be granted on a petition of cited the financial statement of 1906 the majority of the ratepayers of any which was issued six months after portion of the city. he close of the financial year. Such methods were unbusiness-like and Mayor Has No Financial Instincts.

contrary to the practice of successful Mr. G. S. Armstreng gave a strong, usiness men who knew within ten discharge her cargo there this year af practical address on a business-like lays their losses and gains, their reonduct of municipal administration. ources and liabilities. He said there should be a better and In conclusion Mr. McDougall refer more harmonious understanding ed his critics to his record as mayor in 1897. "At that time things were pretty bad," he said, "but even at that we built the E. Y. & P. bridge or which I claim I can take consid rable credit. "We know that," said Dad Brenton Mr. McDougall related the history of the negotiations that led up to the construction of the bridge. It was lue to the energetic, unselfish and imely action of the council under the Constable. eadership of the mayor, assisted

ARE EFFECTIVELY ANSWERED Honolulu state that the new Norwegian Mayoralty Candidate McDougall Takes up Charges and Dispses of Them . He Offers to Buy Back Exhibition Property for Price Paid for it. Brands as False, Statement that he Secured Legislation to Exempt Norwood from Taxation-Fully and LucidlyExplains C.P.R. Charge:

MAYOR GRIESBACH'S CHARGES

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 29, 1907.

the Pacific When the vessel arrived the firemen Mr. John A. McDougall, whose can- block where I also hold property. The Norwood school was packed to the doors last night with the sturdy elect-joining his at $20,000. Then they ours of the East End, to hear the declaration for the year 1907, and the declaration of the policy of each of the East End and dates for aldermanic honors in candidates for aldermanic honors in of lumber when she left. The account says that while proceed-ing through a calm sea on Saturday, Nov. 2, and 2,500 miles northwest of Honolulu, the look-out suddenly descried in the distance an immense avalanche of water whirling down upon the vessel.

EDMONTON BULLET

won the sympathy of the audience. Mr. Picard was represented in the person of E. B. Williams, who was courteously but skeptically received discharge a lot of officials " said Mr Brother Takes Stand discharge a lot of officials," said Mr. she had been a racing shell and hurled theif verdict at the polls. leaving out of the question the set-A. M. Sereth was the last-witness through space for hundreds of yards. Exhibition Grounds Allegation. tlement for the eight lots in Block 10. called. He said that he cut prices to "It is most absurd to charge me meet opposition. He cut 12½ per cent with holding up the C. P. R. Rail- below list prices. Even at this reducchairman, and by apt anecdote and the tem-stirring peroration directed the tem-per of a most intelligent and good "We hope you will," shouted another. (Applause.) "It's coming," aded an-other way corporations are never held up. They are vested with powers which He had little profit on the led price he was able to make a profit. other. To this rumor Mr. McDougall gave an emphatic denial. Want Utilities to Pay. Decling with the city's utilities to an experiment. Decling with the city's utilities to Pay. The waves evidently passed over He purchased a great deal of property securing more for it than when he started business on No. 15 whole scene was nee a night new produced a number of the company. No money was brance. The waves evidently passed over bers of the company. No money was the responsibility for the payment of quotations at which he sold the variable. Witness produced a number of quotations at which he sold the variable. the surface of the sea, and trembling and staggering like a stricken being, at last settled quiet on her keel. When the crew went on deck the desolation was appalling. Not a timber of the deck cargo remained. It was a wonderful trip and took sev-

It was a wonderful trip and took sev-enteen days, every hour of which in-creased the hardship on the crew. Owing whole of the surrounding country be-treased the hardship on the crew. Owing whole of the surrounding country be-"He had a better idea of what was ing benefited by it. Many of the shareholders wanted to sell their stock to secure the property it requires. The Chief Justice. The court adjourned at 5.15 o'clock.

in the company, and our firm, being impressed with the possibilities of the town, undertook to buy up as much stock as was available. We are not before it had to, and I stock as was available. We secured a majority of the stock, and then offer-had been satisfied with what it could ed the property to the city. I may have legally got from the Railway Commission, it would not have come to the city. It was because the C. P say that my intention from the outset was to sell the property to the city. FIRED IN SELF DEFENCE

"The following year I made an offer the city to sell the property for 10 000. The council many for the city to sell the property for Chickbook council Mayor $40,000. The council refused to con- Griesbach now wants to shift the resider the offer. Both Mayor Griesbach sponsibility from his own shoulder Robert Braithwaite was Killed in Re-sisting Arrest-Unlikely Action Animet Mounted in the council at that time. The council apparently had not the faith is in a the strengt to divert attention from the questions of large municipal "Notwithstanding the refusal of the interest by attacking me?

A Row & Fall wat a the state of the state of Warranted to Give Satisfacilon.

Gombault's

-No Stretch -No Shrink

The way Stanfield's Underwear is, when you buy it-is the way it stays until you are ready to stop wearing it.

can't shrink because the shrink is taken out of the 3 wool, before garments are woven. The natural "spring" of the wool prevents. stretching out of shape.

when cars waded.

Sant on sets and N & SONS NIPEG, MAN.

MISSION MERCHANTS

UMBER S WELL?

us a look up. You'll find af ing our stock that the quality and the material just what is the most complete in the we carry everything from the e roof. About that roof of m'll cover it with Paroid Roofhich we are sole agents and lso the best, after seeing us

Namayo Ave. Branch Yard, Vegreville

outdoor work, ry day wear, alking and . Elmira Felt are the warmiest, lightest ost comfortall footwear. ide mark, shown above, te sole of every genuine Felt Shoe and Slipper. pr it whenever you buy.

53

E

ably by the financial stringency. He was surprised to find that in progres nany of the public-spirited citizen sive Edmonton householders or ten ints had no vote. The charter hecdes he bonus required. "Is this true, or present

Mr. McDougall Speaks.

among the heads of the different deduct of the city's business one dollar was eating another. The staffs in charge of departments of the city's service could look after five times the business they did. He scored the city administration for its apathy and mayor had shown a want of financial nstinct in being overtaken so deplortardiness in extending the city's sewerage and water system. The he audience knew where the quota-Mr. McDougall was heartily receiv d by the electers present. In open The public debt, he charged, was ed by the electors present. In opening his address he stated that he was not thrusting himself into the munhigh and had increased too rapoo high and had increased too rap dly during the last two years. The lebt of the city has increased $2, 000,000 during the last two years. cipal field; but was asked to come out by a largely signed requisition and innumerable personal requests. "Yes, and what have we got for t?" said a voice in the audience. He stood prepared to answer all charges that had been levelled at him, He cited as bad business the filling and deplored the fact that the cam p of the city yards with a great surpaign was not being conducted on the Jus of material for public works, thus municipal issues that were before the ying up a large amount of capital.

people. Mr. McDougall then took the gen eral charges contained in Mayor Griesbach's letters and made a most effective reply to each in turn. I had been charged, he said, that his private business had been detrimenta' itizens who generously stood by o the city. It was charged that b collusion with the government at Re gina that he had obtained exemption from taxation for the Norwood sub division. He stated that Norwood and Hudson Bay reserve had beer ionor and not one-could throw a stone exempted some time before he ac quired the property. During 1905 an 1906 only school taxes were assessed This year $210,000 was the total taxe of which Norwood was paying its fai t to the electors. share, but the Norwood section of the D.

city was not getting an adequate ex penditure on improvements in re He referred to a letter in the Bulle tin by a man, he said, whose name was not on the voters' list. This may impudently asked what had Mr. Mc Dougall done for Edmonton. To this he replied that he had stood by Edmonton for 39 years, had in vested a great amount of capital, as is many buildings on Jasper avenue abundantly proved.

The Exhibition Charges. With respect to the exhibition grounds Mr. McDougall stated he With ancial statement. The new council for went into the exhibition propositior in the early days as a scheme to ad 1908 should ascertain at once the true state of the city finances. He advo-cated a saving clause in any agree-nent between the city and any covertise the resources of the city and Edmonton district. The exhibition was never a financial success and many of the small shareholders want ed to sell. When Mr. McDougall ob ooration purchasing the street railway, that the city could repurchase ifter a term of years. He also made a plea for monthly meetings of the rateained a controlling interest in the exhibition park he offered it to the wayers to discuss municipal ques-tions. "I feel," said Mr. Galbraith, city at $40,000. The next year it went up to $60,000. "We could have kept p to $60,000. "We could have kept t and divided it into lots and made ouble the money. They accuse us in conclusion, "that the coming cour il are facing a monumental legacy of municipal complexities and it will re double the money. They accuse us of making money on it. They could have done so, too, but they did not quire careful management to deal with have the foresight nor the courage." Mr. McDougall finished his state-Big Labor Fight at Duluth. ment on this question by declaring that he would buy back tomorrow that he would buy back tomorrow Duluth, Minn., Nov. 28.—As a re-the exhibition grounds if the city sult of the dispute between the brickould sell. With respect to the charge that the new office building for the City would sell. McDougall and Secord were blocking National Bank, Duluth is threatened the C. P. R. Mr. McDougall said it with a war for open shop between the was ludicrous to think so. He ex- contractors, and the union laborers. plained that they owned twenty-three The union men refuse to work with lots in block 10. The C. P. B. bought the non-union iron workers employed fifteen of them. They then went to work and laid track on these lots, as well as on the remaining eight which separate contract for brickwork, and fifteen of them. They then went to by the American Bridge Company on Hammond's Port, N.Y., Nov. 27.— only on the to lots, but on the 8 oth-work and laid track on these lots, as the building. The contractors had a The world's record in aerial naviga-well as on the remaining eight which be a separate contract for brickwork, and tion was broken yesterday by Glen H. want, as well. Up to the present, I had nothing to say regarding the iron Curtis' ascent, when his dirigible bal-had nothing to say regarding the iron curtis' ascent, when his dirigible bal-had nothing to say regarding the union, and gave the and showed a speed of thirty miles ing us up, not us the C.P.R. is hold-cused of blocking the C. P. R. at Jas-ly treated by the union, and gave the and showed a speed of thirty miles a "Last spring C. P. R. officials came didn't hurn my letters" soid Mr.

in that locality: The C. P. R. ob- fight will be to a finish.

Grenfell, Sask., November 23.-Th inquest into the cause of the death of s it not true?" said the speaker, and be andience knew where the quota hibition, arguing that it was essentially a civic enterprise, the city leased opened last evening in Ellis Hall the property for a year for $3,000, and by A. W. Argue, coroner. Friends of took an option to purchase at $60,000.

creased the hardship on the crew. Owing to the fact that Taku is an ice port it

The tidal wave is supposed to have been caused by a submarine earthquake.

will be impossible for the Borreson to ter the delay necessary for repairs.

MOUNTED POLICEMAN

deceased were represented by B. P. Richardson; the attorney general's department by Levi Thompson, of Wolseley, and Corporal Dann by morrow for $60,000 for the property Norman McKenzie, K.C., of Regina. Lieut.-Colonel Saunders was also pre- my business word sufficiently above sent in the interests of the mounted question, to be considered when I make this offer. polica.

The chief witness was Corporal Dann. From his evidence it appeared that he was accompanied by exhibition property, and sold it in Ald. Picard's Representative. peared that he was accompanied by Constable Moses, of Grenfell and Con-table Wilson of Begins with in-ly have realized twice the amount Mr. E. B. Williams appeared for Mr. stable Wilson, of Regina, with inicard. He said that Mayor Gries structions to arrest Braithwaite on a bench warrant issued last June on the being criticized and condemned, each was not running the election and e had authority to say so. He point charge of shooting with intent to d out that Mr. Picard was one of the murder. When the officers reached Braithwaite's house he at once openity's interests in 1897 and signed the ed fire on them with a shot gun, and 25,000 note to pay the bonus towards three shots were fired, one just missthe amount paid for it. he E. Y. & P. bridge. Mr. McDouing Constable Moses by a few inches. all was a gentleman of ability and his door; and the same was true f Mr. Picard. He pointed to Mr. Picrd's twelve years at the council poard and his record and commended The Other Candidates. wound. T. W. Wright, a neighbor, was also examined as to Braithwaite's of the city. The act was similar to R. Fraser spoke briefly on the need of a strong council board for 1908. Things had come to such a pars hat the best men should come to the ity's aid. Dr. I. J. Lane stood for the intersts of the whole city and stated that they returned the verdict that Robert with one legislative act as with the he East End platform was his plat Braithwaite came to his death by a other. orm. No less would suit him. John Galbraith closed the meeting bullet fired from a revolver in He stated that he was in favor of hands of Corporal Dann in self defence, while performing his duty. ystematizing the different branches is not likely that any action will of the city administration by placing competent men as heads of each and by a rigid selection of subordinate taken against Corporal Dann. mployees. He wanted a better fin Fortifying Guam Island.

San Francisco, November Haste is being observed in fortifying

24.

the island of Guam by the United States against any possible foe, according to G. E. Rogers, a merchant of the island, and Edward Y. W. Keen, of the naval auxiliary service both of whom arrived as passengers on the auxiliary cruiser just in. The ressel just off Dewey dry-dock at Olangaho, Phillipines has come to join the fleet of this coast. Ninetysix guns will constitute the defence of the harbor of San Luise De Apra; will be lost in getting them in posi-tion. Transport Warner them in positive of the war department.

Air Ship Went Thirty Miles an Hour.

uncil to purchase the property Wheat Firm Suspends Payment. ntinued to buy up stock in the association. The next year, when the ompany refused to carry on the exceived from the city.

The Norwood Exemption

Winnipeg, Nov. 27.-Bruce McBean, minent grain firm, suspended pay ment this morning. It was a member of the Chicago board of trade, Minneaolis Chamber of Commerce and the Winnipeg grain exchange. The busi-"The property is worth to the city puble the amount paid for it, and |ness is principally that of grain brokers but do some buying on commission. Me-Bean issued a statement this morning morrow for $60,000 for the property. I think I am well enough known, and saying the suspension was only temporary and was due to a difficulty of the firm in getting money to earry on their ness owing to the financial stringncy. The firm is not to be suspended "If I had been without public sentiment I would have sub-divided the all debts in full. the grain exchange and will pay up

Bandits Secure Plunder.

St. Petersburg, Nov. 28,-Bandits looted the government pawn shops at Tula and the Trans Caspian railway station at Samarakand, Russian think I am entitled to credit for dis Turkestan, carrying off seventy-five thousand dollars from the former and posing of a piece of property to th city which to-day is worth double ten thousand from the latter

A New Walking Record.

Braithwaite then barricaded the door and had his gun levelled to fire the fourth shot from the window when Dann fired at him with his revolver. The charge that I secured legisla-tion exempting Norwood from taxa-tion is false. There is no truth in it. I had no influence in securing this Chicago, Nov. 28—Weston reached the post office, the goal of his remark-able tramp from Portland, Maine, to Chicago, at 12.14 o'clock today,break-The post-mortem examination, exemption, nor did I exert any. To- ing his record made forty years ago by which was made by Dr. Coughlia, gether with other subdivisions, among over 24 hours. ffl showed that death resulted from in- these the Hudson's Bay, it was ex-

(Continued from Page 1.) disposition and conroborative evi- that passed by the Alberta Legisla- against him. The reason he gave

dence as to the shooting was given by ture extending the boundaries of Cal- such an explanation to Mr. Davidson Constables Moses and Wilson. The gary, and exempting from taxation was that he was afraid jury were only out a few minutes and the addition. I had as much to do Sensational Ev Sensational Evidence

Mr. Bennett wanted to show that witness could not profitably sell his "The property in Norwood was ex- lumber stock $2 to $3 below Calgary the empted by the act of the Northwest prices and have his supplies hauled It Council for two years, 1905 and 1906. a mile by teams from the railway yard This year the property is taxable, and to his retail yard, his company havthe property owners are paying their ing no railway switch into their yards, share of the $210,000 of municipal This was possibly the most sensataxes collectable by the city. And tion statement made in the progress Norwood is paying these taxes with- of the trial. Mr. Bennett then want-out having a single dollar expended ed the books produced. on municipal improvements in the At this juncture it was proposed by district. This, I may say, is mani- the court to adjourn the trial to per festly an injustice to the residents of mit the witness to go to Calgary to Norwood. As a result of the two years secure the books required. It develof exemption did the city lose any- oped, however, that witness is not a thing, in view of the fact that no retailer, but a manufacturers' agent money was spent in improvements? The C. P. R. Entrance. his brother being the retail dealer. The examination of the witness was "Not only am I credited with sphinx-like powers in controlling the Witness stated he conducts business Ninsty acts of legislatures, but I am also as a wholesalers' agent. He bought credited with holding up a wealthy railway corporation. I am almost 15, and was able to sell below the Nuam, and other points on the is-land now owned by the Unit d States. Emplacements for guns have already been made, and little time and wonderful individual, holding the in the palm of my hand.

will be fost in getting them in post-tion. Transport Warren, on the last trip to the far east, landed sub-marine mines and a number of search-marine mines and a number of searchmarine mines and a number of search-lights there for use in fortifying and defending the barbor and island defending the harbor and island. Air Ship Went Thirty Miles an Hour. Hammond's Port, N.Y., Nov. 27.— Only on the 15 lots, but on the 8 oth-per avenue when the C. P. R. were men until this morning to return to per hour. He was demonstrating a "Last spring C. P. R. officials came didn't burn my letters," said Mr. attempting to buy the right of way work. They did not do so, and the new brand of motors to a representation of the intervention of tiacions with the city for the entrance ed with the conspiracy.

