Constable Sheppard's Version of Charges Against Him.

Const. Sheppard, to whom the Telegram made reference yesterday, and who was arrested recently on a seri-ous charge, arrived here by the shore train to-day and gave the Telegram his side of the story. In effect he says he is the victim of a conspiracy He says that the first intimation he had of the charge which Mrs. Elms made against him was Sunday night, the 9th inst. When he heard it he came here Monday and laid the facts of the matter before his superiors, and on going heak on Tuesday's train and on going back on Tuesday's train he was arrested at Brigus Junction by Sergt. Spracklin under warrant. He was taken to Harbor Grace and iailed as a common felon. He was aken before Magistrate Oke Wednesday morning, appeared in court on the same charge but did not plead to it, and was at his own request admitted to bail, giving his own surety in $1,000 and two others in $500 each. While here he retained Mr. W. J. Higgins as his counsel, and he says that lagistrate Oke acted without acquainting I. G. Sullivan or Mr. Higgins of his intentions, though the latter had wired him to be apprised of what was to be done in the case. He says most emphatically that he is not guilty of the grave crime imputed to him, and he came over to-day to consult his legal adviser. The maider LONDON, To-day.

Both she and her husband had been coming to his house ever since, and their relations were most friendly. They left his house Saturday night the 8th inst., parting in a most friendly man-ner, and when Mr. Sheppard heard the rumour of Sunday night he was shocked and determined to lay the facts before I. G. Sullivan, which he did Monday last. As to the allegation that he assaulted the woman after ber marriage in his house, he says this is most untrue. Respectable people have always boarded in his house, his wife is always at home, and even it he were inclined to do so he could not do so under such conditions.
