Bobcaygeon Man Sees Big Future for Cattle—Wild Buffalo of the Angus and Hereford Breeds—New Variety Has Splendid Hide and the Celebrated Hump of the Buffalo.

In these days of fox farming, minx farming and even skunk farming, it is interesting to know that in Canada we have perhaps the only farm in the world devoted to the breeding of an entirely new race of animals called cattelo.

Cattelo are the result of twenty years of experiment of crossing domestic cattle of various breeds with the American bison or buffalo, and today a new strain has been fairly established.

Mr. E. Mossom Boyd, of Bobcaygeon, is the originator of the idea, and has at the present time a large herd of cattelo. These animals are nearly as hardy as their wild forefathers, have a splendid hide, much more even than the buffalo, have the large hindquarters of the domestic animal, and the powerful shoulders and neck of the buffalo. The hide alone is more valuable for fur than an ordinary fatted steer, and in the case of cattelo the most becomes the by-product, but as such is just as good, as valuable, and weighs as much as that of a very large steer.

Sometime years ago Mr. Boyd, while in California, saw a small herd of buffaloes and immediately conceived the idea of developing from this fine animal, now almost extinct, a cross-bred race of cattle which he hoped would be valuable in many respects.

He was able to purchase a thoroughbred bull which had been captured as a calf on the prairies, some seven years before, and with this animal, he decided to at least give his idea, a thorough experimental trial.

For the purpose of the trial he crossed the buffalo with domestic cattle of the Polled Angus and Hereford breeds, and at the end of the first season, had obtained some 30 calves. Six of these were males, but only one survived, and he proved of no service in the experiment, and was disposed of later to the Toronto Zoo.

Of all the cows but nine would breed, and with these hybrid animals, the experiment was continued, until in less than ten years the herd had grown to about thirty animals, some being one-quarter bred buffalo, others three-quarters. Then hybrid would no longer describe them, and Mr. Boyd invented the name 'cattelo.'

In this country of cold winters, the problem of housing domestic cattle has always been a serious one, and cattlemen cannot afford to have larger herds than they care for in the severest winter weather. The buffalo being a native of this country is much better able to stand extremes of cold and it was hoped that by crossing with domestic cattle a hardy strain might be produced. In this respect the experiment has proved a great success.

The buffalo is a very good meat animal, and has much bigger shoulders than the domestic. The well-known hump on the buffalo is not fat as in the case of the camel, but muscle. The cattelo has much of the buffalo's hump.

The Rosiru Whaling Co., Ltd.

The annual general meeting of the Shareholders of this Company, was held on Saturday last, when a dividend of 6 p.c. was declared. This Company is the most successful of the whaling companies operating in Newfoundland waters, and last year secured one hundred and eleven (111) whales for two steamers. The rate of the dividend declared in the past two seasons namely 10 p.c. would have been maintained, but in consequence of the possibility of the Company having to incur expenditure in the improvements of their Plants, a balance was left to the credit of Profit and Loss to be carried forward to next year.

Varicose Veins and Itching Piles

Usually Arise From Same Cause—Relief and Cure Effected by Dr. Chase's Ointment.

Nearly everybody knows of Dr. Chase's Ointment as the most effective treatment for piles or hemorrhoids that medical science has been able to compound. So much suffering and misery arises from this ailment that one is not long in telling his friends when he has found an actual cure. This account is for the enormous sales of Dr. Chase's Ointment.

This letter tells of relief from the suffering of varicose veins by the use of Dr. Chase's Ointment. Many suffer from this trouble not knowing the comfort to be obtained by the use of this great soothing ointment. Mrs. R. J. Evans, 187 Munro street, Toronto, writes: "We have used Dr. Chase's Ointment for years. I have been troubled with varicose veins, and find it the only thing that gives relief. For every purpose when a soothing, healing ointment is needed there is nothing so good as Dr. Chase's Ointment." 60 cents a box all dealers or Edmanston, Bates & Co., Limited, Toronto.

T.A. Juveniles Entertained

The annual treat to the T. A. Juvenile Society took place in the T. A. armoury yesterday afternoon, and was attended by over 400 boys.

At 4 o'clock the lads were entertained in the Casino Theatre by Mr. I. P. Kiely, manager of the Nickel, who had a special programme of moving pictures for the occasion, after which all sat down to an excellent repast furnished by the lady friends of the society. The appetites of the lads were keenly developed and all did ample justice to the tempting viands supplied. After tea the lads were all given a package of candy and fruit. During the evening the President, Mayor Ellis, and the officers and guardians of the society were present. The President delivered a brief address to the boys, and on their behalf thanked the ladies and all those who assisted to make the evening so enjoyable.

At night a dance was held by the adults in which about 100 couples participated. An excellent program was gone through, the music being supplied by the T. A. Band.

The officers and guardians of the Juvenile Branch deeply appreciate the interest displayed by the ladies who devoted so much of their time and attention to make the annual treat such a phenomenal success.

Two Reel Feature

At The Crescent.

Undoubtedly the best two reel feature picture seen for some time is presented at the Crescent Picture Palace to-day and to-morrow. The picture which is entitled, "The Smuggler's Daughter" is a strong dramatic story of the daring doings of a gang of opium smugglers together with a fascinating plot, in which a young girl plays the principal character. As comedies, "Professional Jealousy" is a clever burlesque that must certainly create laughter. "First Aid Filtration" is also rich and abounds in many comical situations. This bill is a record for interest and fun. Mr. David Parks slugs the latest illustrated hit, "The Story I Read in Your Eyes." The Crescent has won its popularity on its own record in giving a good clean show; it is the home of enjoyment and refinement, comfort and safety. Usual sessions and prices.

WINARD'S LINIMENT CURES DISTEMPER.

Alone!

They've taken her away up the steep, steep brae,
To her home in the guld kirkyard,
And I sit alone this weary day—
Alone wif my grief unshared.

I ha'e seen her laid in her cauld, cauld bed,
And now the driftin' snaw
Throws a white glistenin' pall on a grave new made,
And ower it the chill winds blaw.

And I count the years since we twa were wed,
And the lang years roll away,
I see her a bride 'mang the roses red
On one sweet morn of May.

In her wistful een the love light gleams
Through a mist of April tears,
And they hold in their depth the tender dreams,
And hopes of the coming years.

But the bonnie een, and the sunny sheen
Of her nut-brown wavin' hair
Had lang been dimmed, and the years had ta'en
The bloom frae her cheek so fair.

But the love we pledged that sweet May morn—
Oh, that love was leal as t' steel!
And the years that left us lured and worn
Our hearts the closer drew.

And mem'ry stirs dead hopes and fears
As I dream of bygone days—
Of a baby face with its smiles and tears,
And eyes where laughter plays;

And of that dark day when sorrow came
And left in its weary train
An empty cot and a childless home
And hearts with an aching pain.

But now she lies by her child again,
And still through the darkening day,
The driftin' snaw whitens hill and plain
And a grave on yonder brae.

And I long for the touch of her gentle hand—
And my heart is wearyin' sair,
But pray I that soon in that far-off land
Our life ance mair we'll share.

MEXICO CITY, Feb. 3.
Federal troops are being rushed from Saltillo to San Luis Potosi, Torreon, to assist in its defence. General Velasco, in command there, is said to have 5,000 men. General Blanquet, War Minister, is a authority for the statement that the federal force sent to the south-west has checked the advance of the rebels from Durango. A force under General Orozco, which has been sent north, is expected to hold back Villa's men. The rebel movement in the State of Oaxaca is becoming more active. A fifth regiment was despatched from here last night, that section of the country. Jose L. is Requena and Pedro Villar, who were recently arrested in connection with alleged plotting against the Government, and later were released, leave Mexico on Thursday.

The Greatest Modern Educator Of Children— Mme. Montessori on her recent tour of America included Battle Creek, the great Pure Food Center, in her itinerary. Speaking of diet for children she makes the following statement (in the public press of Dec. 31, 1913):

"Coffee and tea should never be placed within reach of a childish hand."

Besides being an educator, Madame Montessori is a physician, and bases this advice on her scientific knowledge that an ordinary cup of tea or coffee contains from 1½ to 3 grains of caffeine—a poisonous drug.

In these days of liberal education the average parent is becoming informed concerning the baneful effects of tea and coffee drinking, not only on the youth, but on those further along in life.

How much better to place before the children (and older ones too) a wholesome, nutritious, pure food-drink such as

POSTUM

Made only of prime whole wheat and a small percent of pure molasses, Postum contains only the rich native value of the grain—good for young and old. Postum is free from caffeine or other harmful substance.

Postum comes in two forms:

Regular Postum—must be well boiled to bring out its rich flavour and food value. 15c and 25c packages.

Instant Postum—a soluble powder. A teaspoonful stirred in a cup of hot water—with cream and sugar—makes a delightful beverage instantly. 30c and 50c tins.

The cost per cup of both kinds is about the same.
