What Italy Fought For.

"A great deal has been said those days about the so-called Treaty of London or agreement of London," says an authority on Italian probems. "Let me make it clear: As I understand Italy, Italy wants no land. but Italy wants the liberation of those poor oppressed people who have been suffering for centuries. Of course, it was necessary at that time when the treaty was made to stipulate exactly what would become of those people, because in the early part of 1915 one of the Allies was Russia, under the diminion of the Czar. Russia had scheming ambitions to gain cognizance and dominance of the Balkans, and the people of Italy who were fighting to liberate those people did not desire to sacrifice her sons, to liberate them from the Hapsburgs and put them under the Romanoffs. That was the purpose of the agreement of London. Now, let us see what that agreement provides: That Trentino should be returned to Italy-and nobody disputes it. They are Italians by race, instincts, spirit, education, history and everything that goes to make a race. Trieste of course Trieste is Italian-Istria and part of Dalmatia "A great deal has been said the days about the claims of Italy to Dalmatia. It is only a small strip around the city of Zara, and Zara, from the time that history records the fact, up to 1814, was either Roman or Venetian. And Zara was captured in 1814 by the Austrians, after a blockade by land and sea, which lasted five years, from 1809 to 1814; "We, perhaps, in our busy lives in this country, get confused with the conflicting claims of the people of the Balkans. A good many of my friends and my colleagues find it difficult to distinguish between the Czecho-Slovaks and Jugo-Slavs. There is this great difference, that the Czecho Slovaks fought with us and the Jugo-Slavs against us.

"And let us look at the history of Croatia. In 1848, when Hungary put up a gallant fight to liberate herself from the oppression of Austria and Austria was licked, it was the Russian and the Croatian who went to the aid of the Hapsburgs and subdued Hungary. In 1876, when Russia compromised with Austria-Hungary and called upon the Croatians to stand by, Croatia then again lined up with the Hapsburgs. And isn't it significant, and isn't it typical that now, when the claims of Italy have not yet been published, when there seems to be no real conflict of claims, we hear a cry come-from where? From the Croatians and Dalmatians that Italy wants to suppress them! My friends, it is nothing but the Hapsburb politics at work again.

"But I want to make this clear: That Italy is desirous of befriending and helping the newly-organized Jugo-Slav confederation. Why, it was Italy that received them in Rome in 1918. It was Italy that first recognized the aspirations of the Jugo-Slavs. At that conference, which was addressed by Orlando, the Prime Minister, there were representatives from Roumania. Serbia, Montenegro and Croatia, and Dalmatia. But those few men who were there from Dalmatia represented the progressive party of Croatia Slavonia and Dalmatta, the men who have been fighting an uphill fight for years and for centuries against the Hapsburg tribe,"
