DR. CLARK'S CANDIDATURE

The electors of Haldimand, in Ontario, are preparing to invite Dr. Clark to contest that riding and become their member in the house of commons. Without doubt, other ridings would gladly be represented by such an able member. However, they will have to wait until Red Deer rejects its able representative, which, judging from present appearances, seems a rather long wait.

The Red Deer people have started in with a vigorous organization. Ten representative citizens have been appointed upon a committee to further the interest of the cause, and make the candidature of the present member certain and his election sure. The ten committeemen are representative men in their city, nearly every one of them being at one time mayor of the city.

Dr. Clark is an able member of parliament, who is a credit to the riding he represents, and the parliament which he honors. He may be trusted, as a rule, to take the right side in great issues. Apart entirely from the cause which he is advocating, he deserves the confidence of the electors of Red Deer or any other western riding which he might desire to represent.

Dr. Clark was rejected by certain Red Deer Liberals because he favored the military service act. The Albertan is convinced that a large number of the Liberals of Red Deer, perhaps the majority of them, are not in sympathy with the action of the convention. However, the Win-the-War organization is a move in the right direction, and the strength and sincerity of the gentlemen at the head of it insure success for the movement in that riding.

And now there is another revolution in Russia. Revolutions in Russia are about as frequent as tag days in Calgary. However, of late they have been accomplishing less.

Premier A. L. Sifton has announced himself in favor of a union government, which is something for a man as deliberate as the Alberta premier to do. However, that does not exactly mean that there will be a union government.

REACTIONARY CHANGE

An innocent looking paragraph in the midst of the dispatches this morning announces the fact that Dr. Adam Shortt has been appointed chairman of the board of historical documents, leaving the important post of civil service commission, and that the vacancy thus created has been filled by Clarence Jameson, member of parliament for Digby.

This may mean little or it may mean much. But the most evident interpretation is that Prof. Adam Shortt, who has spent the last few years reorganizing the civil service, and trying to replace patronage by efficiency, has been removed from that post, and a party politician has been appointed to replace him.

Prof. Shortt has given good service to the country. He has not been appreciated by the politicians, who can see nothing in public office but a reward for party service. He is not a politician, and greatly improved conditions in Ottawa. He has been subjected to hard and humiliating situations by men of the stamp of Rogers, who resented the efforts of Dr. Shortt to free the service from graft and inefficiency.

Either Dr. Shortt has been removed or his position has been made untenable. Whichever it may be, he has been removed from the important position in which he was placed to another position of an entirely different nature, and a politician has been appointed to his position as head of the civil service.

The street railway should continue to furnish transfers for the city market for a portion of the day, provided that the market is a real market and not a sort of hothouse bazaar. But the street railway should receive credit for a reasonable amount for the service rendered.

Sir William Mackenzie is making his last journey of inspection over the C.N.R. Unfortunately, he has not made his last journey to Ottawa. He will go to the capital one more, on this time upon a motor truck, and on the return he will carry back the millions he is to receive, thanks to the generosity of a very generous government.

LET THE OTHER FELLOW DO IT

According to a dispatch from the east, Sir Herbert Ames, and the other members of the patriotic fund in Ottawa, will decide today respecting the future of the patriotic fund. It is a question whether they will continue the fund on voluntary basis or, as the dispatch says, have the provinces and municipalities meet the levies out of taxation.

There is little doubt but that the voluntary method of raising money has not been entirely successful and that contributors in this province at least are convinced that the fund should be raised out of taxation.

But the rather cool way that it is handed over to the provinces and the municipalities is interesting. The patriotic fund is a national affair and should be organized, raised and administered by the Dominion.

If it is placed upon a provincial basis, then the provinces would not only have to raise the fund but administer it as well, which would not be good business or efficient organization. If it is put upon a provincial basis, doubtless each province would have to take care of its own soldiers.

In other words, the province of Alberta would have to raise a larger revenue for the patriotic fund because more Alberta boys are doing their duty in the trenches than any of the other provinces. The province that does most of the fighting would have to do most of the paying.

The best way is for the Dominion government to raise the fund by taxation, and to administer it. It is a national affair and for that reason should be handled nationally.

One of the objections to Food Controller Hanna is that he gets no remuneration, and the other objection is that he does not earn his salary.

We haven't had much baseball in Calgary for the last few years, but that does not prevent about five thousand or more intelligent Calgary enthusiasts from knowing exactly which team will win and by how much.

Sir George Bury predicts times of great prosperity for Calgary, because of three good crops in succession.
There will be good times, without doubt, though prosperity is less a matter of interest than it has ever been before or will ever be again.

Of course, there is no strategical importance to be attached to the encounter, and it makes no difference in the length of the war, but the drive of the enemy upon William Buckshot Sherman at Hill 41144, Moose Jaw, and the gallant defense of Gidder Brindle Sherman, was not without its interesting features.

If the aldermen-in-council in their search after ways and means to reduce the cost of everything would start a night school to give lessons on reckoning and expert calculation, at which Superintendent McCauley, Commissioner Graves and some members of the council might attend, it would make a good move.

This owl service on the Calgary street cars is a hold-up, an out and out hold-up. Now that the population is increasing, it would be well if the city made an experiment with reducing the cost of the service. Twenty cents for a ride on the street cars!
Sixty cents to take yourself, your best girl and her mother. That comes a bit high. It is a hold-up.

Many people thought that the day was past long ago, when a minister could or would settle an argument with one with whom he did not agree by confining him or her to hell fire forever and ever. But times do not change as fast as we thought they did.
We do not now burn people on earth for their religious beliefs. We are making some progress.

On the very day that Premier Sifton, from New Brunswick, was announcing his faith in a union government, the boss guesser of the Conservative party has it that he is in the maritime provinces organizing the cohort for Sir Wilfrid Laurier. When one of these guessers takes his typewriter in hand and undertakes to guess, he furnishes some interesting news.

WORRYING ABOUT PEACE

German Chancellor and Cabinet Minister Cannot Agree

Amsterdam, Oct. 2.—The Vorwaerts, the German Socialist organ, says the German government will make a formal declaration regarding Belgium when it deems the psychological moment has arrived. This moment will be deemed to have arrived when the question of Belgium appears to be the only obstacle to peace, says the newspaper, which adds that according to Dr. Richard von Kuehlmann, the German foreign minister, this declaration may be expected in a couple of weeks.

The Vorwaerts concludes by saying that Dr. Michaelis, the German imperial chancellor, and Dr. Kuehlmann, are not in agreement on the question of peace. Michaelis adhering to the Pan-German ideas, and Dr. Kuehlmann favoring peace by compromise.

"WAR IS HELL!"

Moose Jaw, Oct. 2.—The battle of the Sherman theater ended at 11:10 this morning, when Manager Grant, of the Bank of Hamilton, and others, forced an entrance by breaking the doors and found the place in possession of two Sherman employees, and Commanding General Sherman conspicuous by his absence. Two 32 rifles and a revolver were discovered.
W. B. Sherman had decamped during the night. Possession was formally taken by the Groves-Walker. Limited.
No action against Sherman is com-plated.

of reliable people is the strongest evidence obtainable. If you have any doubt that Dr. Chase's Ointment will positively and completely cure piles, these letters should convince you.
Mr. Samuel Parker, fruit grower, Grimsby, Ont., has made the following declaration before Mr. W. W. Kidd, Notary Public of the same place: "I do solemnly declare that I have been troubled with bleeding piles and was advised to go to the hospital to have an operation performed. My wife said 'No, get a box of Dr. Chase's Ointment.' I did so and have used it according to directions while living in Manitoba and obtained a complete cure for I have not been troubled with piles since. I am now seventy years of age and want to recommend Dr. Chase's Ointment to all sufferers from piles. My wife has used it for itching skin and obtained complete cure."

Mr. Donald M. Campbell, Campbell Mountain, N.S., writes: "I have used Dr. Chase's Ointment with great success for hemorrhoids or piles of fifteen years standing. After trying all kinds of so-called pile cures, three boxes of Dr. Chase's Ointment gave me a complete cure. I have also used Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver-Pills, and there are no others so good. You may use this letter, if you wish, for the benefit of others who may suffer as I did."
