PLAYING AT BALL. A fair crowd saw the alleged ball game at Tecumseh Park Saturday afternoon. The Chathams are doubtless very nice boys and may be fine ball players some of these days if they stick at it. It is said they can lick most of the teams around Chatham already, and their ambition to bring down bigger game is quite commendable if not very successful. However, they did their best and it was not their fault that they the visitors with spiked thoes. The game was too one-sided to be exciting, and too was glad when it closed at the end of the seventh, the Chatham boys having to catch their train. The fielding of the Alerts was not perfect, but that of their opponents was wretched, though the score will show that there were a couple of stars amid the gloom. It was a terrific slugging match, too. Carney, who had pitched fairly, was relieved by Sheere in the sixth. Bert did not exert himself greatly, knowing the game was safe, and allowed the to touch him up pretty freely by way of encouragement. The score:

AQUATIC. HAMILTON'S REGATTA. HAMILTON BEACH, Aug. 5 .- Four thousand people witnessed the finals in the annual regatta of the Association of Amateur Oarsmen yesterday afternoon. The steady wind from the northwest made it necessary to row the events or he lake side of the beach.

The first event, the final in the enior feurs, had the Leanders, of Hamilton, and the Argonauts, Dons and Torontos, of Toronto. The Argonauts won hands down by half a dozen lengths. The Torontos and the Dons rowed an exciting race for second place until within 200 yards of the finishing point, when the Toronto made a grand spurt and got the place. The Dons were a good third and the Leanders away in the rear. Time, 9:321. The second event, the final in the junior singles, had five competitors. James O'Connor, of the Dons, sold a prohibitive avorite in the books at 2 to 5, and A. F. Jury, of Toronto, 3 to 2. Jury gave the favorite a good race, but had not staying power and was completely fagged at the finish. O'Connor led from the start, but Jury held on to him all the way, and for the last 200 yards the latter spurted, but length ahead. The other three were never in it. Dineen, of London, was a poor third. and O'Neal, of the Leanders, a worse fourth; Dixon was fifth. Time, 11:56.

The third event, the final junior fours, had four starters. The Dons were the favorites at 2 to 4, the Leanders 4 to 2, and the Argonauts 6 to 2. The Argonauts kept on even terms with the favorites for a mile, where the latter drew away and won by a good three lengths, with the Argonauts as many lengths ahead of the Leanders, who were third, and the Torontos fourth. Time,

The fourth event, the final senior singles, was the best race of the regatta, and, in fact, the best race ever seen here. There were four starters, and in the bocks F. H. Thompson and Alf. Russell, both of Toronto, sold equal favorites at 6.5, Van Damme, of Detroit, 3-2, and McDowell, of Extras...... 5 Chicago, 25 to 2. It was a beautiful race between the two Toronto men, but Thompson kept the nose of his shell ahead of Russell's until within the last 50 yards, when Russell made a splendid spurt and won by half a length in the last dozen strokes. Thompson had rowed in the senior four as well as in the trial heats of the senior singles in the morning, and was spurted away from him. Van Damme was a poor third and McDowell did not finish. Time, 10:53 3-5.

The fifth event, final heat in junior doubles, was a very tame affair; Don first, Baysides second. Time, 10:45.

In the final heat, senior doubles, Argonauts and Torontos did not start. Vespers statement. The movement is the outwere prohibitive favorites at 2 to 10, their only competitors being Minnesotas. Borrowman's building (unoccupied), and from there to Huraman's blacksmith and carriage shop; also Rumball's hardware store; a dwelling belonging to Jas. Drummond; Smith's shoe shop and dwelling.

A brick house belonging to Jas. S Wright, on the south side of the street, broke the progress of the fire, otherwise the whole village would have gone before the flames. Sparks from the mill communicated with John Hallstead's barn and stable, fully an eighth of a mile distant, and they were consumed, together with several borses and hogs.

THE UNITED STATES TARIFF.

An Early Decision Locked For-Illness of Chairman Wilson.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 5 .- The present week will probably seal the fate of the Tariff Rill. The Democratic members of the conference committee met in an informa! way and again went over the bill agreeing here and there to some tentative changes. The senatorial members of the conference were unable to assure their colleagues of the House that the new sugar schedule would be acceptable to the Senate and secure the 43 votes necessary. The senators' conferees declined to indicate what the nature of the report will be, but one of them today stated positively that there would be a conclusion reached not later than Wednesday. The strain on Chairman Wilson is again showing its effects, and his associates fear there will be a recurrence of the painful maladies which sapped his strength during the first tariff conference. His face is again swollen and he reluctantly admits that he is well-nigh physically exhausted
