MUSIC AND DRAMA.

RISE AND BARTON TOMORROW.
Manager Rote offers as the bill at the Grand for tomorrow, Saturday, beginning with a matinee, the musical success, "Middie and Poodle." The piece is said to be very funny and has drawn big houses wherever it has been presented. It is produced by Rise and Barton, comedians. The piece affords ample room for the introduction of specialties, in fact it is little more than a happy vehicle for carrying along and unloading, in a systematic manner, the acts of a lot of thrifty variety people in new roles, with new music and the witliest of sayings.

DAVENPORT BROTHERS AND FAY.
Tuesday and Wednesday of next week the celebrated Davenport Brothers and Fay will give two of their marvellous spiritualistic seances at the Grand. An exchange says: "We never had faith in the truth of supernatural manifestations from the dead by mediums, table-rappings, etc., but having witnessed the extraordinary feats of the Davenport Brothers and Fay at the Cooper Institute, on three different occasions last week, we are constrained to say that we are completely mystified, and find, in spite of ourselves, that our skepticism is falling away, and giving place to a conviction that there is something more than mere trick and sleight of hand required to produce such results."

THOMAS G. SEABROOKE.
In American comic opera, "The Grand Vizier," by the Seabrooke Opera Company, easily takes the lead. It is not an opera comic, but it is comic opera straight—a distinction which is not always remembered. The story—it is a quaint one, absurdly quaint, else it would not be so deliciously funny—begins, is carried on, and has its ending in Tripoli, where a flask of potent makes a shipwrecked sailor a high official with all the resulting complications of the opera. The Seabrooke Opera Company will appear at the Grand next Monday with their own orchestra.

To Buy Out Le Monde.

MONTREAL, Feb. 14.—Rumors have been in circulation for some days that Le Monde was about to be purchased by a syndicate composed of Hon. Messrs. Ouimet and Beaubien, Ald. Lefebvre, J. M. Fortier and others, and that it would become a straight protestation organ. A shuffle was performed this morning by which Andre Senecal, formerly of the Printing Bureau, sold out his share in the paper to Denis Politars, his late partner, who for the present is the sole proprietor.

The Toronto Boodling Business.
Toronto, Feb. 14.—The city corporation counsel has given as his opinion that the city has no right to expend money for a commission to obtain the evidence of Contractor Guellish, of Detroit, which is required in the charges of corruption brought against ex-Ald. J. E. Verral, arising out of the recent municipal investigation, when it will be remembered Guellish swore that Verral asked him for money for his own vote and the votes of other aldermen on a paving contract in which Guellish was interested. As Guellish will not consent to appear voluntarily and give evidence in a criminal prosecution this means practically the dropping of the case against Verral.

SHILOH'S VITALIZER.

THE REQUEST GRANTED.

Dundas Center School Children Will Meet in the Collegiate Institute.

Arrangements Made Between the Board of Education and the Church Trustees—The Evening Service.

After the big fire on Wednesday morning a deputation from Dundas Street Methodist trustee board visited several churches and institutions in the city to ascertain if any would be suitable for the church services. Among the places inspected was the Collegiate Institute, and it impressed the trustees as suitable for Sunday school exercises. Chairman Blackwell, of the Board of Education, was consulted, and he then called a special meeting of the school trustees for 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon. Mr. Blackwell presided, and the other members present were Trustees Sanders, Logan, Murphy, Bucher, Griffin, Turner, Wilkins, Johnston, Greenlees, Keenleyside, Dr. Wilson, Jeffery, Hunt, Martyn, Stephenson, Dr. Campbell, Craig, Principal Merchant, and Secretary McElhennan. The deputation from the church included Messrs. Robert Lewis, C. J. Beale and Isaac Webster.

Chairman Blackwell, in stating the object of the meeting, expressed sympathy with the congregation in their heavy loss.

COL LEWIS EXPLAINS.
"Unfortunately," said Col. Lewis, "we have been turned out of our church and into the cold. We therefore want to see if we could get one flat of the institute for the use of the Sunday school. We have a very large school—over 600 scholars—and we would like to know on what terms we can have the use of the institute on Sunday afternoons at 3 o'clock. It may be some time—possibly seven or eight months—before we get our new church up, but we are going to rebuild as soon as the bricks are dried. We would prefer the first flat, because there are several class rooms in it. We would like to know what it would cost for fuel. I thought of course I have a pretty good 'check'—that we might get it free."

A GREAT CALAMITY.
Trustee T. J. Murphy said the trustees regretted very much the loss the church had sustained, which was a loss to the city at large. "In a case of this kind it is proper," he said, "that the school board should do all they can to assist the congregation in their trouble. As far as I am concerned, I feel that I am free to extend to the fullest extent my sympathy, and to include my neighbors in the bond of charity, and aid, if necessary. I would therefore move that the request of the deputation be granted, and that a committee of the chairman of the board of No. 1 and 2 and the audit committee meet the trustees of the church and arrange terms. I mention terms because some citizens might complain if the use of the institute was granted without any charge for fuel or light. If the board sees its way clear to make these items free also, I will readily agree to it."

THE INSURANCE QUESTION.
Trustee Jeffery said the board should first secure the sanction of the insurance companies to the proposition.

Trustee Craig mentioned the case of the Talbot street school. When it was burned, four different churches were used, and their occupation by the scholars did not affect the insurance.

Mr. Jeffery suggested the addition of Principal Merchant to the committee.

A little misunderstanding arose as to whether the institute was to be used for church and school purposes, or for school only. "We do not want the board to think that we are asking the institute for one thing and using it for another," said Mr. Beal. "We want it merely for the use of the school."

Mr. Greenlees expressed his hearty sympathy with the proposal. He thought if the institute was required for an evening service, the church people should have it.

Mr. Murphy said his motion included the use of the building for any services—whether preaching or teaching. He also wanted Mr. Jeffery on the committee.

The motion was carried unanimously, and Col. Lewis expressed thanks for the courtesy extended them by the trustees.

THE ARRANGEMENTS.
The deputation and the committee appointed met after the board adjourned. It was agreed that the use of the first flat should be granted on payment of $7 per Sunday, which will go towards payment for fuel. The church will have to arrange with the janitor for his services, and will be expected to leave the rooms in an A1 condition. It has not yet been decided whether an evening service will be held.
