CONDITION OF THE CROPS

Grain and Fruit Generally Good-Hay Damaged by Rain.

The following reports show the condition of the crops in a few sections

Aylmer, July 9.-Crops look well in this district, and will be heavy, with the exception of hay, which appears light. Roots will be a large crop.
Alvinston, July 9.—What would have been very heavy crops of hay and grain have been more or less damaged according to the location of the land by heavy rains and extreme heat. greater part of June being cold, the crops are considerably retarded, but recent growing weather is making up for damage. Hay is light, but clover abundant. Apples promise good yield.

Glencoe.—The general crop outlook in this vicinity is exceedingly good. Hay crop exceptionally heavy, but the weather has been so unfavorable that much of it will be harvested in poor condition. Wheat crop good, but acreage comparatively small. Coarse grains are very heavy, and if the weather is favorable from this there will be an abundant harvest.

Goderich, July 9 .- Crop prospects are bright. Wheat and barley are all that could be desired. A good part of the hay has been safely gathered, and with a few more days of sunshine there will be little room for grumbling. A large crop of apples is in view, and small fruits are exceptionally abundant. The wet June has been a drawback, but a moderate July will make up for all

> A very sad case of suicide took place at Mull, near Ridgetown, on Monday morning. Joseph Hawley, aged 34 years, took his life by hanging himself in his barn between 4 and 6 o'clock in the mornbarn between 4 and 5 o'clock in the morning. He got up at this early hour and went into the bedroom of his step-sister, and stated that he had a very restless night, waiting on his father, who is an invalid. Thinking his actions and appearance unusual, she followed to the barn about an hour after he had left her room, and found his body dangling from a rone suspended from a senfeld in the a rope suspended from a scaffold in the barn. Temporary insanity was assigned as the cause. His father had been confined in the London asylum, but has been at home for some time.

A young Princeton man named Alex.
Grant attempted to take his life late on Saturday night. It is supposed that the intense heat of the day had worked on his mind. He was in the village on Saturday night, and a young man was talking to him at 9 o'clock. He seemed all right then. At 11 o'clock he was talking to the house where he to the inmates of the house where he worked. He retired to his room soon after that and bolted the door. He then ter that and bolted the door. He then went over to the looking-glass and drew his razor across his throat from ear to ear. The gash was not deep enough to cut the jugular vein. After he made the gash he sat down, but soon grew faint and fell. The ladies of the house heard the noise and hastened to his room, but could not get in until the bolt was broken. It was a terrible sight for the ladies, but as soon as possible they sent for Dr. Staples, and about 3 o'clock on Sunday morning he had the cut sewed Sunday morning he had the cut sewed up. The young man comes from a respectable family, and was well thought of in the village. He is doing as well as could be expected.

The blow to the there cannot be over half a crop, although in some favorable localities the crop will be good. Other grains have not suffered so much and the stem of the other vessel penetrated fully 20 feet into her hull. Her rudder was rendered useless and her lights extinguished. The passengers, most of whom were in bed, were turned out of their rooms in the dark, and found the men on the ship passing out life-preservers by candle light. There was no panic. The vessel was compelled to wait till daylight before her signals were heard and answered by two small steamers. Her sister ship, the Puritan, came to the rescue and towed her to Newport. The passengers were landed sadely and given their cannot realize how happy I am." were landed safely and given their tickets to New York by rail. They practically saved all their belongings in good order.

The Powhatan had her bow badly damaged and a great hole was stove in her port side five feet below the water line. The forward compartment was flooded, but no water reached the other bulkheads of the ship, and no damage was done to the freight. Her captain reports that at 11:05 last night Priscilla came suddenly out of a bank of fog, and that the ships came together after an exchange of signals before anything could be done to avoid a collision.

AN ITALIAN CAPTAIN THE MOTHER HAD A PISTOL

Cured by Pe-ru-na of Catarrh of the Stomach After Doctors Failed.

Hon. J. D. Botkin, Congressman From Kansas, Writes an Interesting Letter.

CAPT. O. BERTOLETTO.

Capt. O. Bertoletto, of the Italian parque Lincelles, in a recent letter from the chief office of the Italian barque Lincelles, Pensacola, Fla., writes:

"I have suffered for several years with chronic catarrh of the stomach. The doctors prescribed for me without my receiving the least benefit. Through one of your pamphiets I began the use of Peruna, and two bottles have entirely cured me. I recommend Peruna to all my friends."--0. Bertoletto.

In catarrh of the stomach, as well as catarrh of any part of the body, Peruna is the remdy. As has been often said, if Peruna will cure catarrh of one part, it will cure catarrh of any other part of the body. Catarrh is catarrh wherever located, and the remedy that will cure it anywhere will cure it everywhere.

The following letter from Congress-man Botkin speaks for itself: House of Representatives,

A few bottles of y o u r medicine have given me almost com-plete relief, and I am sure that a continuation of them will effect a permanent cure. Peruna is surely a wonderremedy for catarrhal affections .- J.

D. Botkin. This is a case of catarrh of the stomach which had run for 25 years, according to his statement, and Peruna has at once come to his relief, promptly accomplishing for him more benefit than he had been able to find in all other remedies during a quarter of &

It stands to reason that a man o. wealth and influence, like a congress. man of the great United States, has left no ordinary means untried and no stone unturned to find a cure.

If such cures as these do not verify the claim not only that dyspepsia is due to catarrh of the stomach, but also that Peruna will cure catarrh of the stomach, it is impossible to imagine how any evidence could do so.

If you do not derive prompt and satisfactory results from the use of Peruna, write at once to Dr. Hartman, giving a full statement of your case. and he will be pleased to give you his valuable advice gratis.
