THREE ACTIONS FOR DAMAGES ARISE OUT OF GAMEY CASE

Mr. J. M. McEvoy Sues London Free Press, Mr. Gamey and Mr. Wright.

Three actions for damages for alleged libel, arising indirectly out of the Gamey investigation, may be heard at an early date in the courts of the land.

The plaintiff in each of these cases is Mr. John M. McEvoy, barrister, of this city, who was one of the counsel of the Government in the investigation, and the amount claimed in each instance is $10,000.

The London Free Press Printing Company is named as the defendant in one of the actions, notice of which has already been served. It is alleged that the Free Press of a recent date contained a telegraphic report, throwing suspicion on Mr. McEvoy, in connection with the disappearance of the leaves of the Crossin cash-book at the time of the investigation.

R. R. Gamey, M. P. F., is the defendant in another of the cases, and Alex-Wright, the organizer for the Conservative party in the province, is the defendant in the other. The actions against these parties are based on statements made in speeches by them, also implicating Mr. McEvoy in the mutilation of the cash-book.

AN EASY LESSON IN GEOGRAPHY

Boarding-House-Beater Learns Way to Central Prison.

Police Magistrate Has Dealings With Three Thieves—Other Trans-gressors Punished.

Three thieves stood behind the bars of the police court this morning for as many offenses. One was young Thompson, found guilty some weeks ago, and remanded on several occasions, and whom the magistrate told today that he had not received enough information yet upon which to base his decision.

Those from whom the boy had stolen had asked for his release, but he wanted to satisfy himself as to the boy's past, and he called him to a private consultation room.

The second thief was Malcolm McDermott, who asked for another remand until Tuesday, to give him time to get more letters of recommendation, but the assistant crown attorney moved for sentence. The magistrate pointed out how mean the man's action had been in booting his landlady out of board and then stealing. He let him off with three months in Central Prison.

The third thief was William Cornell. Seymour Karm had a silver watch at the Ransom House, and when he stopped over to pick up a man who had fallen the prisoner, which he had a short time previously asked to see. Mr. Karm saw him, but he did not remember him. Cornell, however, did not give any idea of the amount of cheese made by the factories connected with the board, for thousands of boxes changed hands at private sale.

The prices the past season were unusually good, owing to the demand from the old country for the Canadian cheese.
The lowest price paid was 8 1/2 cents, on the last three Saturdays of July, when the market experienced something in the nature of a slump, while the highest price was 12 1/2 cents, paid on Sept. 19. The market of that date was exceptionally strong, one factory bringing 12 cents, another 12 1/2 cents, and another the highest price of the year.

CONDENSED LOCAL NEWS

morrow.

—The Young Women's Christian Association is holding a bazaar on Thursday and Friday of next week. Many useful and fancy articles are being prepared. There will be a tea-room, a booth for home-made candies and delicacies, and a magazine stall, where "A Christmas Portfolio" will be sold.

On Tuesday evening a free singing class will be started, which is hoped will be enjoyed by many.

—Miss Clifford Sifton, wife of the Minister of the Interior, is in New York with her fourteen-year-old son.
The latter is to be treated by a London specialist, John H. Atkinson, for hip trouble. Mr. Atkinson has been in Ottawa some time during the last fortnight and will give Master Sifton a course of treatment.

—The remains of the late Miss Katherine McGregor were interred in Glasnow Cemetery this morning. The funeral took place from the residence of her sister. The services were conducted by Rev. Dr. McCrae.

TWO HIGH COURT CASES.

Before his lordship, Justice Meredith, this morning two cases were heard in the weekly high court. Both were St.
Thomas cases, and the motions were granted in both instances, which arose from a dispute concerning a portion of land in Southwold. W. H. Sells was the plaintiff in both cases, and F. J.
A. Sharon and Miss Sells the defendants.

PRINCESS RINK OPENING.

The management of Princess rink intend to open this popular rink on Monday night, if the present cold weather continues. For some weeks past it has been undergoing extensive alterations, and is now complete and of better appearance than ever before. The extensive work in front has been newly-paved, and a number of new electric lights placed upon it. The interior has been entirely renovated. The entrance and both the gentlemen's and ladies' waiting rooms have been papered and painted, and in the rink proper fresh coatings of paint and many more lights make it look very bright and attractive. The management believe that patrons of the rink will appreciate their efforts to make it as bright and comfortable as possible.

REMEMBERED BY CLASS.

Mr. D. Hannah, of Waterloo street, was pleasantly surprised on Thursday night, when he was waited upon by the members of a Bible class of the First Methodist Church, of which Mr.

James Irwin is leader and Mr. Hannah assistant leader. The occasion was the 25th anniversary of Mr. Irwin's leadership. During the evening he was presented with a handsome gold watch and chain, the gift being accompanied by an address, which was read by Mrs. Baskerville, of Mill street, and the members of longest standing in the class. Mr. Collins, of Piccadilly street, made the presentation. Mr. Irwin made a brief speech, in which he expressed his sincere thanks for the kind remembrance.
Addresses were also given by Rev.
George Bishop, Mr. Hannah and Mr.
Elliott. Refreshments were served, and all present had a most pleasant time.

HIGH MASS CELEBRATED.

Regium high mass was celebrated by Rev. Father Dunn this morning at St. Peter's Cathedral, when the funeral of the late Miss Kate Denahy was held. The funeral took place from the residence of the deceased's parents on Sydenham street. The interment was in the Catholic cemetery.

TWENTIETH CENTURY CRAZE.

"The Twentieth Century Craze" will be the subject of Rev. Arthur Murphy's address to men only tomorrow afternoon at St. George's Church. He will conclude his services here in the evening, going to Toronto Monday.

HICKSON-GREENWAY.

A quiet but pretty wedding took place at 10 o'clock Thursday morning Nov. 26, when Mr. Sophia Greenway, of this city, was united in marriage to Mr.
Hickson, of Cleveland, Ohio. The bride was attired in a very pretty pink gown of blue broadcloth. She was also the recipient of a number of handsome presents, among which was a beautiful set of Irish table linen from her fellow-employees. The happy couple left on the noon train for their future home in Cleveland.

RICHMOND STREET METHODISTS.

On Friday night the Epworth League of the Richmond Street Methodist Church held an open session. Coffee and cake were served in abundance for all, and the pastor, Rev. Mr. Saiton, presented the following programme: Chorus, "The Church is the Body of Christ"; chorus; reading, Mr. Saiton; instrumental, Mrs. Effering; recitation, Lena Henry; song, Mrs. Saiton; dialogue, Maitland Street Church; one, Mrs.
Cook and Mrs. L. Griffin; reading, Wm.
Andrews and Miss Poole; duet, Misses Umbeck and Porter. The waiters were Misses Poole, Watson, Mitchell, and Bail, Henry, and Messrs. Everett, Far-ar and Floyd.

HUSBAND GONE AGAIN

Kate Delmont Asks Police to Look for Him.

Kate Delmont is getting to be a frequent visitor at the police station. She called again this morning to complain that her hubby, the much-mentioned Christopher Columbus, had once more left her. She also exhibited a burn which she claims was inflicted with a hot gravy spoon by the woman in whose house she stays. She says the woman claims Delmont "knocked the spoon in her hand so as to cause the injury." Kate says that before leaving her, her husband abused her.

DEATH OF JOHN WALSH.

The death of Mr. John Walsh occured yesterday at the family residence, Central avenue. He was 48 years of age, and was well known in the city, and was a painter by trade. He was born in Canada and had lived in London the greater part of his life. The funeral will be held on Monday.
