LOCAL MARKET. London, Wednesday, April 11

Trade was lively at the market today; sales were brisk and higher prices pre-There were 20 loads of hay offered, which sold quickly at $9 25 to $10 per ton.
"We can get paled hay laid down here in car lots at $8 50 per ton, and we will do so if the present prices keep up," was the remark made by an agent of one of the large cartage companies doing business at 36 %.

The supply of oats was large; sales, lowever, were brisk, most of the loads selling at $1 15 per cwt.

WEEKLY REVIEW. The condition of the roads was no doubt the cause of the small attendance at the markets during the past six days. There has been a good demand in nearly every line, and prices as a rule are higher than in the previous week.

this line was the high price paid for cats, which have advanced from 8c to 10c per cwt from the prices paid a week ago; sales are made at $1 13 to $1 17 per cwt; the stock of cats held by the dealers are reported as very light. There was no change in prices of other kinds of grain. Hay and Straw—The demand for hay Hay and Straw—The demand for hay has not been as brisk as at present for over a year; there is plenty of hay in the country, but the farmers will not bring it in while the roads are in such bad shape; prices are correspondingly high, at $9 50 and $10 per ton; there should be a good demand all next week. Straw is in fairly brisk Jemand at $5.50 per length of $2.75 to Butter and Eggs-Butter is lower on price, at 21c to 23c for pound rolls and 20c to 22c per dozen. Eggs are firm, at 15½c to 15c per dozen.

Potatoes—The supply is fairly large; sales are moderately brisk, at 80c and 85c les-With the exception of what was

Apples—With the exception of what was offered on Saturday, there were not many on sale this week; prices vary according to quality, at $2.50 to $4 per barrel; only the choicest Spies and Baldwins bring the highest figure.

Oil City, Pa., April 10.—Oredit $1.58; shipments, 46,492 barrels. the choicest Spies and Baldwins bring the highest figure.

Poultry—The supply in this line is on the light side, considering ten high prices asked; chickens sell at 10c to 11c per 1b, live weight, and 75c to $1 10 per pair; for cressed fewl prices rule at 90c to $1 20 per pair, and 12c to 15c per ib; turkeys sell at 16c to 17c per ib.

Dressed Hogs—While the supply is small there is sufficient offered for the demand; the small packers, who purchase nearly state.

the small packers, who purchase nearly all the hogs marketed here, have eased put in buying this is pu in buying; this is owing to the warmer weather and the slow demand for cut-
