Suddenly-Wealthy Indian Maiden Wouldn't Trust Vaults.

AND BURIED IN WOODS

North Bay, June 21.-Despite years of stubborn resistance to the efforts made to have them sell the valuable pine on their reserve, the Indians of are at last enjoying the sudden wealth acquired by the sale of the timber. Henry Dokis, with a family of ten, has received in cash $9,666, and the next payment will give him $1,000

In addition to this another berth elled on many boats of different types $60,000, ten per cent of which will be paid to the Indians, amounting to nearly $100 a head, so that Henry Dokis, with his family of ten, will have an annual income of $3,000, and more if his family increases. Toronto, June 21.-The most serious of the Northern Ontario fires, which have been raging for a week past, are now reported to be under control. Hon. Frank Cochrane, minister of lands and mines, received a brief communication from the provincial superintendent, in which he stated that his staff has been so busily engaged in the work of fire-fighting that they have as yet had no opportunity to make an estimate of the amount of damage done.

"I fear, however, that the damage will be considerable," said the letter "This has been what we call a bad year In the examinations for the third division, but 34 out of over 100 who tried as there has been scarcely any rain." helped to lighten the burdens of the farmer, died Saturday at his home, 64 Beaty avenue, Parkdale. Death was due to a stroke of paralysis suffered in the later part of last year. For years the late Mr. Clokey was identified with the Massey Harris works, and was instrumental in making many improvements in farm machinery. His most notable invention, the Clokey binder, was rut upon the market by the Farmers Co-operative Machine Company, of which he was a member. The headquarters of the business was in Oshawa, and it was while in charge of the factory there that he was stricken with paralysis.
