Saratoga to Blue Bonnets next The Zollicoffer horses are ready from Saratoga to Bile Bonnets leck-week. The Zollicoffer horses are ready for the colors, and they bid fair to cut conspicuous figures in the impending September meetings at Blue Bonnets and Dorval Park, after which they will ship to Maryland for the September session of the Hartford Agricultural and Breeders' Association at Havre de and Breeders' Association at havre de Grace.

Foremost among the Zollicoffer horses is the 2-year-old Apex, a son of Ultimus and Crazyquilt, she a daughter of Hamburg and Counterpane, and she a daughter of Sandringham and Homespun. Apex was a $25,000 yearling. Mr. Zollicoffer bought him the other day from Frederick Johnson. He is a good looker, highly tried, and he comes of one of the most celebrated of the running families in the American stud book, the family of Spinaway, Handspun, Tangle, Tanya, Knot and Broomspun. Homespun and Handspun were sisters Brilliant 2-year-old representatives of this family in the current season's racing are Olympus and Broomster, winners, respectively, under the son's racing are Olympus and Broomster, winners, respectively, under the sliks of Harry Payne Whitney, of the great American and Tremont stakes, Aqueduct's best summer specials for 2-year-olds. Ultimus, which died at Beaumont Farm the other day as a result of an attack of colic, had been one of the most successful of the stock horses of the male line of Domino and Commando. He sired Luke McLuke, Commando. He sired Luke McLuke, and Reagazza also ran. Commando. He sired Luke McLuke, one of the best handicap horses of his time and a successful stock horse in recent years, and Steplightly, last seapon's Belmont Park Futurity winner, also a raft of 2-year-old winners of also a raft of 2-year-old winners of 1921. Apex will succeed All Smiles as the head of the Zollicoffer stud if he head of the Zollicoffer stud if he has reasonable success as a race horse, has reasonable success as a race horse.

Of the same age as St. Quentin, he could beat that very useful horse as a 2-year-old before he developed leg trouble. He is still hard to handle in muddy going. Duke John is an iron campaigner. Lucky Find, a son of Ferole and Lucky Catch, is a product of August Belmont's Nursery stud. On the distaff side he is closely related to Lucullite, the son of Trap Rock and Lucky Lass, that was greatest of American 4-year-olds a couple of seasons back and is now at stud service at Harry F. Sinclair's Rancocas Farm in New Jersey Lucky Catch and Lucullite are own brother and sister.

The guest of honor was Sir Charles Fitzpatrick, lieutenant-governor of the Province of Quebec, who welcomed the convention in the name of Quebec Province and also conveyed a welcome from Premier Meighen, whom, he said, he had met this morning. Prof. Watson Bain, president of the Canadian Institute of Chemistry, Toronto, also followed with a brief address of welcome. President Sir William Pope then gave his annual address, in which he pointed out that the Society of Chemical Industry represented the whole Anglo-Saxon race in matters of chemical technology, since it had a large branch in the United States, many of whose members were present.
