Prosecution Announces That a Large Quantity of Poison Was Discovered in Body Unearthed at Hilldrop Crescent

LONDON, Sept. 6.—Three sensations marked the commencement today in the Bow Street police court of the trial of Dr. Hawley E. Crippen on a charge of murdering his wife, Belle Elmore. The first was the changing of the charge of murder against Ethel Claire Lennox, Crippen's mistress, to that of accessory after the fact. The second announcement was by the prosecutor that a large quantity of a liquid poison had been found in the body unearthed in Crippen's cellar; and the third the testimony of Mrs. Paul Martinetti, Crippen's nurse, who had seen on Mrs. Crippen's body and at her apartment that the doctor had found a similar scar on the body in Crippen's cellar.

The court room was crowded with auditors who leaned forward in their seats to catch every word uttered. Crippen throughout the proceedings bore an air of indifference even when Travers Humphreys, the public prosecutor, outlined the crown's case against him. Miss Leneve was heavily veiled and her face was not visible to those in the court room. After the crown's case had been recited a few witnesses were heard and an adjournment was taken until next Thursday.

BASE GOODS PROVED
HIS RUINATION

Johnny Davis, a Beachy Bay Indian, was sentenced to a month's imprisonment for a lighted fire in the police court yesterday morning for having assaulted an old Indian woman and a white girl. Johnny made quite a speech when asked if he was guilty or not guilty.

"My dear brothers," he started— and went on to say, with occasional broken phrases, that he and his sons was homeward when two white men offered him refreshment, to-wit, beer and whisky. "I took the whisky," said Johnny. He told of taking to drink, then five—and by this time he was half-shot," he said. "I was not a half-shot, but I was not guilty for he didn't know whether he struck the old woman or not; per-haps he did." Anyhow, the others said, "He was sentenced."

th's imprisonment. James Kennedy was charged with violating the curfew law without a light. He pleaded "not guilty." The Magistrate misunderstood him and thought Kennedy was reaching for the ten when it pointed out that he had pleaded not guilty. Kennedy was taken to jail until today.

William Dick, demand was then set at $25.00 for having a gun. He was released on $25.00 cash phasant. He was released on day last. He was arrested by Douglas, Warden Gidley and Constable Cox of Providence. He pleaded guilty and said he was afraid that he was "breaking the law." He was taken to the steamship when arrested. With him another man who carried a gun, was arrested. The man was apparently been shot a short time before the arrest. The game warden he was arrested was in the direction of Craigflower, shooting in the direction of the game warden to investigate with the result that he was arrested. He accused himself of being a phasant, but this was not true, and an order made that it was not true. He was taken to the Home. Dick was arrested Sunday morning at 24 hours in confinement before released on $50 cash bail.
