CORPUS CHRISTI AT THE ARBEY

An Impressive and Beautiful Sight as seen at the Convent in Wellington-place.

The festival of Corpus Christi was observed at Loretto Abbey, in Wellington-place, by a procession which marched around the grounds connected with the convent building. The first figure in the cortege was that of a little boy, who carried a large golden crucifix, around which were entwined wreaths of rare flowers. Following came a young lady bearing aloft a handsome banner, the long streamers from which were held by a number of young girls uniformly attired in white. Then followed about two hundred young ladies, pupils attending the convent. These were also dressed uniformly, and each wore a long white veil. Several beautiful banners were carried in the procession. The young ladies were followed by the nuns, whose black garments presented a striking contrast to the bright surroundings. Next in order of procession were a number of boys from the Boyd-street School. They were attired in black, and each wore a rich crimson sash over his shoulder. They were employed in strewing flowers before the Blessed Sacrament, which was borne by Rev. Father Rooney, under a canopy of rich white antique, to a temporary altar erected on the western verandah of the building. Benediction being given, the procession reformed, and marched back to the chapel.

Do you feel as though your friends had all deserted you, business calamities overwhelming you, your body refusing to perform its duties, and even the sun had taken refuge behind a cloud? Then use Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery and Dyspepsia Cure, and despondency will disappear. Mr. H. Baker, Bolton, writes: I am constantly cured of dyspepsia by Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery. I believe nothing that effected the cure after trying many other remedies.
