> THE MONEY MARKET will not be much easier for a few months, and yet there are millions lying idle in our banks and other monetary institutions drawing only about 3 or 4 per cent. It is only from some private source that cheap money can be got for large loans on dist-class city property. The confidence of private capitalists in Toron to property is steadily increasing, and hence their rendiness to invest in it, either by purchase or upon mortcage. Borrowers or sellers in the above line are gradually finding us out for straight business.
