The ladies of the Warwick Branch of the W. I. held a very interesting meeting in the Forester's Hall, on June 13th. There were 11 members and 9 visitors present. After the meeting was formally opened by singing and prayer and the usual business dispensed with, Miss Lena Vaughn read a finely prepared paper on "How to wash and iron." Miss Vaughn's paper pointed out that methods of washing were being made scientific as well as other things. In place of the kettle of soft soap and the wash board we now have electric washers and the best washing fluids that science can turn out. Mrs. Mains sang a Scotch solo very nicely. The ladies answered the roll call by donning their sunbonnets. The meeting closed by singing "God Save the King."

McLaughlin—Lamont.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. A. Lamont, 2nd line, Brooke, was the scene of a festive occasion on Wednesday, June 5th, 1912, when their only daughter, Kate, was united in marriage to Angus McLaughlin of the 7th concession, Brooke. The Rev. N. A. Campbell, of Inwood, performed the ceremony in the presence of about 50 guests, most of whom were near relatives of the bride and groom. The wedding music was played by Miss Ella McFarlane, of Bridgen, and at 12 o'clock the bride, leaning on her father's arm, entered the parlor where the groom awaited her under a floral arch. The bride was simply attired in a dainty gown of white marguerite trimmed with wide cluny lace, and carried a bouquet of white carnations, both were unattended. After the happy couple had been made one, and the good wishes of those present had been showered on them, all repaired to the drawing room where a sumptuous dinner was served. The numerous gifts to the bride included a kitchen shower given by her S. S. class of the Presbyterian church, Inwood, on the previous Saturday, and a handsome parlor table and brass jardiniere presented on Monday evening by the Women's Institute, of which she is a valued member. The groom's gift to the bride was a pearl pin, and to the organist a gold bracelet. In the early afternoon Mr. and Mrs. McLaughlin left for Petrolia, where they boarded the train for Detroit and other eastern points. After a short honeymoon they will take up their residence on the 7th con., Brooke, where they will be at home to their many friends.

DARK ROOM TESTING

Every child on reaching the age of seven years should have the eyes examined. Many children have defective vision, and it often happens that one eye only is affected. This throws all the work on the better eye while the other through disuse frequently loses its function entirely. With proper lense correction this trouble will be wholly overcome. If accompanied by parents we will be glad to examine children's eyes free of charge.
