-The Sydney strike reached a climax on Monday morning in conse quence of the attempt of the Steel Co Company to resume operations. This move was made in accordance with the xpressed wishes of the Board of Trade of Sydney, which passed resolutions to that effect, and also requesting the town council to see that protection be given to those employees who desired resume their former places. The Council accordingly placed the situaforce, but when the works were opened and the men attempted to go in on the plant it was soon found the strik-ers were beyond the control of the hundred strikers collected at the ap next year.
