LINIMENT	Belleisle, Feb. 3rd.—The annual "at home" of the congregation of the church of St. Mary's was held in the Hall on Thursday evening, the soth ult. A large compary was present and a most enjoyable even- ing was spent, with a sumptuous and inviting tea prepared and served by the ladies. Afterward the com- pany was treated to a most inter- esting and humorous program, which had been prepared by the young folks. First came two vocal selec- tions most beautifully rendered by the Rector, whose voice has only to be heard to be appreciated, Mrs. Lyle prescling at the crgan. The next was an original stetch, "A Woman's Business Meeting," by local	Bear River, Jan. 29th.—On Thurs- day last Mr. Obadiah Parker died at his home at the age of seventy-eight years.
