

From Mrs. D. McLellan, Hamilton—
A splendid Portrait of Dr. Chalmers.
The Curators of the Museum rejoice to acknowledge the receipt of this addition to the proposed Portrait Gallery, and they cherish the hope that this department, hitherto almost overlooked, will receive from the friends of the Institution, some degree of attention. Portraits of almost any size or style will be acceptable—especially good Portraits of such men as the great Reformers—Luther, Calvin, Knox, &c.—and of such men generally as have distinguished themselves in the Christian Church.
