SUBJECTS FOR PRAYER.

SPECIAL thanksgiving for extension in the home work; for personal, family and national mercies, and for the bounties of God's providence.

Thanksgiving.

IN our Woman's Foreign Missionary Societies, the holding of the thanksgiving meeting some time between October and Christmas has become almost an established usage. We would recommend to any circle which has not had such a gathering, to make the experiment and see how enjoyable and profitable it is.

Last October THE LEAFLET enumerated and suggested causes for thanksgiving. We need hardly do so again. Let our members for themselves think over the common blessings of which we have all been partakers, and the special and personal blessings which each one must recall for herself. Is it not a means of grace to us just to pause and look back over the year, and try to name
