HALIFAX, N. S., July 13th, 1857.

The Grand Conductor introduced the undernamed Representatives, who were duly initiated and took their seats: David Neville, No. 9; Charles Church, James Bond, John Reddin, Wm. H. Reeves, Daniel McDonald, 32; David Thompson, 125; George W. Freeman, Charles E. Morton, 127.

The G. W. P., appointed the following Committees:

On the State of the Order: P. G. W. P., John S. Thompson, Rev. T. H. Porter, D. Dimock.

On Communications: Henry B. Mitchell, George W. Freeman, James P. Milward.

The Grand Scribe read a letter received by him from the Grand Worthy Patriarch, in which cause of his absence from the present session, as also of his Quarterly Report to the Grand Division, was stated. On motion it was referred to the Committee on the State of the Order.
