

OTTAWA

Church of England Magazine.

Calendar for July, 1891.

- July 5. — Sixth Sunday after Trinity.
- 12. — Seventh Sunday after Trinity.
- 19. — Eighth Sunday after Trinity.
- 25. — Saturday. St. James.
- 26. — Ninth Sunday after Trinity.

Clerical Visitations.

PROTESTANT HOSPITAL — The Clergy visit in turn each week.

CHILDREN'S HOSPITAL AND CONVALESCENT HOME. — The clergy in turn.

NORMAL SCHOOL — The Religious Instruction Class every Friday during the session, Rev. H. Pollard.

GAOL — Rev. I. J. Bogert.

HOME FOR FRIENDLESS WOMEN — Rev. W. I. Muckleston.

PROTESTANT ORPHANS' HOME — Rev. J. M. Snowdon.

HOME FOR THE AGED — Rev. T. Bailey.

EDITOR — Rev. H. POLLARD, Park Avenue.

SECRETARY-TREASURER — Miss BAKER, 5 Arthur Street, who will supply the magazine and receive the subscriptions, and to whom notices of change of address should be sent.

ASSISTANT-EDITOR — Mr. A. N. McNEIL, who has charge of all matters connected with the advertisements in the magazine.

CHANGE OF ADDRESS. — Will subscribers please notify Miss Baker, 5 Arthur st., of any change in their residence.

APOLOGY

Through a mistake of the Printers, in last month's Magazine, the reports of the W. A. and Synod were sadly mixed. The third paragraph on p 4, beginning "A Missionary Meeting," and down to the 7th line in the second column, should have followed under the heading of "Wom. Aux.," on p 3, after the account of Mrs. Nicholls' address.

CHRIST CHURCH.

The Sunday School Bible Class was discontinued on June 21st till the end of the summer. The Sunday School will close for eight Sundays beginning on July 12th.

The Thursday celebration of Holy Communion will be discontinued after July 2nd.

ST. JOHN'S.

The Sunday School was closed as usual on the last Sunday in June, and will re open on the first Sunday in September (6.) For many years this has been the practice in St. John's, and has been found to answer very well, the children and teachers all re-assembling in full force and with renewed energy. To keep on the school during the hot weather when so many of both teachers and children are away is very discouraging, and tends to dis-organize the School. To put the remnants of several classes under a new teacher every Sunday is not conducive to order, and the listlessness brought on by the heat is not conducive to discipline. Hence it seems better to close altogether than to "worry on" under such unfavourable circumstances.

The Annual Moonlight Excursion was postponed in consequence of the fatal illness of Sir John Macdonald, but came off as usual, through the kindness of Captain Bowie, the first of the season. on Monday, June 15th. Although the postponement lessened the number who attended, it was extremely enjoyable, and floating down the river by the light of the moon, and with a soft gentle breeze and sweet sounds of music, made up almost the perfection a "restful hour," and many hoped they would be able to have another such trip with similar good company before the summer is past.

Mrs. J. Cuzner has our deep sympathy at the loss of her fine little boy, Frank, four years old, who died of diphtheria and was buried the same evening, Sunday, June 21st.

We regret very deeply the accident that befel our ever active friend George W. Steacy. The culpable carelessness of the workmen at Mr. Murphy's store on Sparks St. had left the excavation in the sidewalk improperly covered and as Mr. Steacy was walking down the street on Friday evening, June 25th, the plank he stepped upon flew up and he fell down between the boards and was badly injured, so that it will be some weeks at least before he is able to be about again. Had he not been caught by a friend, he would doubtless have fallen into the hole and on the large stones lying at the bottom, and then no one can say what the result would have been.

Miss L. M. Jarvis leaves this month for Elmira, N. Y., to be trained as a nurse. St. John's will have five former Sunday School Teachers in the noble army of workers. Miss Jarvis will be greatly missed.

GRACE CHURCH.

The formal opening services of Grace Church were held on Wednesday, the 27th May. Holy Communion was administered at 8 a.m. At the evening service there was a very large congregation, the spacious edifice being well filled. The Prayers were read by the Rector, and the First and Second Lessons were read by the Ven. Archdeacon Lauder, and Rev. T. Bailey respectively. An eloquent and appropriate sermon was preached by the Ven. Archdeacon Morrison of Ogdensburg, N.Y., to which the large congregation listened with devout attention and interest. The text selected by the preacher was taken from 1 Kings vi. 7. In the course of his remarks, the preacher dwelt upon