

giving of a cup of cold water, if it bring but the smallest ray of that light which love alone can bring, may be, and often is, the first step towards the dissipation of Stygian heart-gloom, and the dawning in of the light of Love and of Life. Even a cup of cold water given in the name of the Master shall in no wise lose its reward. Herein lies the influence for good which may be wielded by the medical missionary.

THE MEDICAL MISSIONARY'S MEDICAL AND SURGICAL DISPENSARY.

And besides, this mode of Applied Christianity gives us, as all forms of Applied Christianity give us, opportunity for guarding against inconsistency. Applied Christianity is Christianity, and Christianity is the love of God. It is also the love of neighbor.

The application of the fundamental principles of Christianity in the every day lives of the people of Christendom, would be the panacea for all the ills of all the world. That application by the people of Canada would once for all bring to an end the uncharitable and anti-Christian political cries
