It Makes You Hungry

"I have used Paine's Celery Compound and it has had a salutary effect. It invigorated the system and I feel like a new man. It improves the appetite and facilitates digestion." J. T. COPELAND, PRIMUS, S. C.

Spring medicine means more now-a-days than it did ten years ago. The winter of 1888-89 has left the nerves all fagged out. The nerves must be strengthened, the blood purified, liver and bowels regulated. Paine's Celery Compound—the Spring medicine of to-day—does all this, as nothing else can. Prescribed by Physicians, Recommended by Druggists, Endorsed by Ministers, Guaranteed by the Manufacturers to be 37/ The Best Spring Medicine.

"In the spring of 1887 I was all run down. I would get up in the morning with so tired a feeling, and was so weak that I could hardly get around. I bought a bottle of Paine's Celery Compound, and before I had taken it a week I felt very much better. I can cheerfully recommend it to all who need a building up and strengthening medicine." Mrs. B. A. Dow, Burlington, Vt.

Paine's Celery Compound

CATARRH.

A New Home Treatment for the Cure of Catarrh, Catarrhal Deafness, and Hay Fever.

The microscope has proved that these diseases are contagious, and that they are due to the presence of living parasites in the lining membrane of the upper air passages and eustachian tubes. The eminent scientists—Tyndall, Huxley and Beale—endorse this, and these authorities cannot be disputed. The regular method of treating these diseases is to apply an irritant remedy weekly and even daily, thus keeping the delicate membrane in a constant state of irritation, accompanied by violent sneezing, allowing it no chance to heal and as a natural consequence of such treatment not one permanent cure has ever been recorded. It is an absolute fact that these diseases cannot be cured by an application made once or twice in two weeks, for the membrane must get a chance to heal before any application is repeated. It is now seven years since Mr. Dixon discovered the parasite in catarrh and formulated his new treatment, and since then his remedy has become a household word in every country where the English language is spoken. Cures effected by him seven years ago are cures still, there having been no return of the disease. So high are these remedies valued, and so great is the demand for them, that ignorant imitators have started up everywhere, pretending to destroy a parasite, of which they know nothing—by remedies the results of the application of which they are equally ignorant. Mr. Dixon's remedy is applied only once in two weeks, and from one to three applications effect a permanent cure in the most aggravated cases. N.B.—For catarrhal troubles peculiar to females this remedy is a specific. Mr. Dixon sends a pamphlet describing his new treatment on the receipt of ten cents in stamps. The address is A. H. Dixon & Son, 303 King Street West, Toronto, Canada.—Scientific American.

Sufferers from catarrhal troubles should carefully read the above.

COCOANUT CUSTARD is made by adding a small cup of desiccated cocoanut to a quart of milk and letting it soak for an hour before adding the eggs. It is improved by using five eggs and reserving the whites of three for frosting.

No more Pills. Campbell's Cathartic Compound is especially prepared to take the place of those nauseous Pills.

POTATO OMELET.—Large cup of mashed potatoes, three eggs, tea-cup of sweet milk, very little sifted flour, teaspoonful of salt, a little chopped parsley. Beat the whites and yolks separately till very light. Mix thoroughly, turn into a buttered spider and brown lightly. Invert on to a hot plate and serve hot. Nice for tea.

"Best cure for cold, cough, consumption is the old Peppermint Balsam. Cutler Bros. & Co., Boston. For $1 a large bottle sent prepaid.

FISH SAUCE.—One of the prettiest looking sauces for boiled fish is coloured with the coral of lobster. The lobster butter used for colouring the sauce is made by putting the coral through a fine sieve with a pestle and mixing with it an equal quantity of butter. The lobster sauce is then made by adding to the white sauce salt, Cayenne pepper, and enough of the lobster butter to colour it.

WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY cured my little girl of a severe attack of whooping cough when no medicine was given over by the physician and all remedies had failed. OSIAH HOFF, Keyport, N. J.

A white sauce sufficient in quantity for two pounds of fish is made by taking one tablespoonful of flour and one of butter, and stirring them over the fire until they begin to bubble, and then adding gradually one pint of boiling water. Stir the sauce until it boils and is perfectly smooth and free from lumps. Then season to taste with salt and white pepper. Many think the sauce improved by the addition of the juice of one lemon.

ORANGE AND LEMON CUSTARDS may be made by first making a syrup, boiling half a cupful of sugar with a very little water, then adding the grated rind and juice of a lemon, or an orange. Let it boil up and strain it. Use this syrup in place of sugar, adding it last, and baking immediately. Something in the way of variety may be done by choosing new flavours. Orange flavour is very nice in a delicate custard; also bitter almond.

LEMON JUICE DRINK.—Take two lemons and pare the yellow part of the skin off very thinly, and put in a jug at the fireside with two breakfast cupfuls of water to infuse for half an hour. Squeeze out the juice of the lemons and put it in a very clean pot with 1 1/2 lbs. of sugar, two breakfast cupfuls of water, one teaspoonful of tartaric acid, and the water in which the skins are infused, and let it all boil for ten minutes. Pour through a piece of muslin, then bottle. A little in a tumblerful of water makes a delightful drink.

CHERRY TAPIOCA.—One and a half pounds of sour cherries, one cupful tapioca, sugar to taste. Wash the tapioca through several waters, then cover with cold water, and soak over night. In the morning put it on the fire with one pint of boiling water, simmer slowly until the tapioca is perfectly clear. Stone the cherries, stir them into the boiling tapioca, sweeten to taste. Take from the fire, turn into the dish in which they are to be served and stand away to cool. Serve very cold, with sugar and cream.
