REV. DR. POTTS says of this work: "I have read with great pleasure "The Ayres of Studleigh." I found one difficulty about it, and that was that I could not give it up until I had finished the book.
In my opinion, it is a charming story, beautifully written, and healthy in its tone and influence."

A NEW EDITION OF

ALL HE KNEW

By the Author of "HELEN'S BABIES,"

(John Habberton.)

Cloth, 12mo. 60 cents. Post-paid.

"This story is not only a most pathetic and realistic piece of fiction, it is a remarkable illustration of the power of the principles of Christianity in a weak and vicious life. No story of which we know has more possibilities of doing good. Its truth, its pathos, its literary touch make it one of the year."
