RYRIE, the Jeweler, Revolution Sunday-School Requisites.

ENORMOUS SAVING TO SCHOOLS.

It is well understood that it costs little comparatively for copies of any publication when once all ready to print. Other publishers figure expense of getting ready to print into cost of publication, then, if circulation runs large they consider the immense profit legitimate. We figure to save schools all we can, hence our large sales and proportionate prices. There is quite as much money in selling 100,000 copies of a publication at 5c. as $5,000 at 25c., or 50¢ at $1., and we are quite contented to make prices on this basis. It is nearly four years since we began publishing Sunday School Requisites on the "Revolution Plan." We then issued two publications, we have now 30, besides 33 library books, 5 Song books and a large number of miscellaneous Requisites. Sales last year aggregated over twenty-six million copies. There is not one of our publications but what, since first issue has been either dropped in price or increased in size and quality, a both to the expense and to the value of the publication. For example, we began with a small twelve page school quarterly at 5c. a copy, the same is now 16 pages, each page nearly double the first size, better paper and matter, yet price the same. We began with the Royal B. and traction Words on cheap paper, little more than half the present size and sold at a higher price than now. In quality we are not to be surprised. We employ about writers and pay for all MSS. using more original matter than any two other publishers in this line, having employed and paid 170 writers for services during the past year or so by seven editors. Nothing pattern or sectarian admitted.

5c. Library Books. Thirty-three school library books each week. First thirty-two are ready to print. First one by E. B. Robinson. Original price of these books ranges from 10c. to 15c. At present we are publishing 37 books, averaging $1.00 each. The volumes of the N. S. are all written expressly for us by the best Sunday school writers, such as Kate Hamilton, H. E. Howard, Jane Hamilton, Belle Kellie, etc., and others of equal reputation. Each book printed with a beautiful illustration on good paper, bound in parchment, wire stitched and put up in a neat, heavy cover, either of cloth or leather. The books are first-class for Sunday school libraries, and are also suitable for private use. They are wire-stitched and will last at least three times as long. Binding is done in a neat, artistic way, each book being numbered and containing descriptive articles of the whole series, including a catalogue and labor. A new book, being such a large number, is published with the same care and expense. PRICES: postpaid, 5c. for more than 100 copies each, but more 25c. into each 1000 copies, 30c. for 2000 or more. 5c. extra each, 50c. for more than 1000 or more. 25c. for more than 2000 or more.

5c. Song Books. Each book handsomely printed on good paper, in attractive and readable type, containing one fifth what other publishers ask. By mail, postpaid, Mrs. J. H. Spurgeon, 113 Yonge Street, Toronto. For list of third year's issue. Three original lesson books, each 10c. per copy. Eighty of these are in losing pieces. Thirty-two standard lessons. One hundred and eighty-two new songs, each 1c. per copy. These new songs arranged to sing at night, with a special list of the best of the old and new new combination. No song book, except equal to it. Price 5c. for more than 100 copies, postpaid.

FOR PRIMARY DEPARTMENT. Primary Songs. Word edition, 10c. per copy. For infant class use, 5c. per copy. For primary department, 2c. per copy. For each sample, postpaid.

FOR PRAYER MEETINGS. Prayer Meeting Songs. Just issued. For young people's prayer meetings, 10c. per copy. For church prayer meetings, 5c. per copy. For each sample, postpaid.

Sunday-School Papers. To put as much matter into each paper as possible by setting in a fine, but clear and readable type. To use only the very best material—the best articles from the best periodicals. To make attractive to the reader, by beautiful illustrations, attractive titles, frequent paragraphing, etc. To make as useful as possible, introducing nothing without it has some good teaching in it. To furnish at prices based on an immense circulation. Fifty different papers. Specimen copies free.

FIVE CENT PAPER. Four monthlies at 5c. each per year, or 15c. per quarter when bought in lots of five or more. Prices 5c. each last year, now reduced to 3c., owing to increased circulation. Each paper contains as much matter as the average Sunday-school paper, and more than many.

SIX CENT WEEKLY. THE LITTLE LEARNERS PAPER, a weekly paper for the infant class; costs but 6c. a year, or 2c. a quarter, in lots of five or more. No other infant class paper sold at less than 10c. a year.

THIRTY CENT WEEKLY. THE WEEKLY MANTLE, an illustrated serial weekly paper for the main school. Immense illustrations, five times the matter of most Sunday-school papers. (Please count words.) Also a choice series of religious, literary and general reading. Nothing like it to keep up the attendance. (Invaluable as a means of doing so.) In the home, besides, it is many ways preventing the reading of bad books and papers. Other papers will be than one quarter the matter, and 50c. to $1.00 a year. (See single subscriptions.)

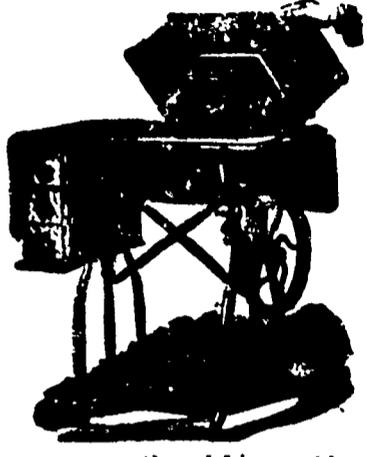

Lesson Helps. OUR PLAN is to furnish all we can possibly do, based on immense circulation, such as lesson helps, and other aids, the best possible results from the study of the lesson. We do this by adapting the lessons to the various ages, publishing a special teachers' help and scholars' help for five different grades. And by giving credit to scholars for lesson preparation, a system, what on the school plan which is successful. By utilizing the song service of the school in the interest of the lesson, introducing purely lesson songs we have expressly for our pupils, and growing out of the lessons. The whole series of lesson helps and other aids to be used by the pupils in the school. Lesson helps are ready to send to sing at night without rehearsal, by the introduction of a new and better combination. They are also sold for those who prefer a copy of Song books. Scholars help with music, and all cost but 10c. a copy, contain all that a year. Teachers help from 10c. to 25c. each. Samples complete catalog 20c. a year.

2c. Concert Library. Twenty-one numbers ready each containing material of a whole evening's entertainment. 3 Christmas, 1 New Years, 1 Anniversary, 1 Easter, 1 1/2 Sunday, 2 Jub. Book, 2 Medley, 1 Memorial, 1 Floral, 1 Subject Concert, viz. The Christian Warfare, The Way of Life, The Golden Time, now. The Christian Cross, The Fruits of the Spirit. In lots of 25 or more, 2c. each. Single copy 4c. Samples of 5 or more, 15c. each.

25c. Anthem Book. Book of 100 pages, church music size. Choicest pieces by ablest writers. The whole costing, but 5c. per copy. (Postage extra.) The ordinary anthem books cost from $1.00 to $1.50 each. We offer a book equal to any for only 25c. This is a new invention. If you are not a church chorister, please call your chorister's attention to this book. If you are chorister send 35c. for specimen copy postpaid. Write for catalogue, and name this paper. Address—
