Receipts for the week were 425,000 bushels, and shipments were 431,000 bushels compared with receipts of 712,000 and shipments of 748,000 bushels for the corresponding week last year. A year ago stocks in store at Fort William were 1,700,000 bushels. Stocks in store at Fort William, Port Arthur, Keewatin, Winnipeg and Interior points were estimated approximately at 3,875,000 bushels, compared with 7,300,000 bushels a year ago, and 6,650,000 bushels two years ago.

A Christmas Number.

From the standpoint of illustrations, the Canadian Magazine surpasses itself in its Christmas number. This is an age of pictures, and the quality of those presented in this issue are sufficient to engender enthusiasm in the most sluggish of patriots. The reproductions of characteristic bits of "Canada Scenic Splendours" are done in colors most effectively. The list of contents is just as commendable. There are special poems by Ethelwyn Wetherald, Eva Brodlique, William Walfrid Campbell, Franklin Gadsby and Elizabeth Roberts Macdonald, all well-known singers. There are short stories by Virna Sheard, Arthur Stringer, and Jane Fayrer Taylor, all bright and characteristic. J. Macdonald Oxley writes a most interesting article on The Bank of Montreal, giving considerable attention to the circumstances of its foundation and its early history. Alfred Edmonds writes of "The Young Idea in Japan," while John A. Ewan takes us to the other end of the world to see "Mrs. Kruger at Home." The coloured cover represents "Johnny Canuck's Christmas." As a souvenir to send abroad nothing could surpass the special issue of Canada's national publication.
