Aye rouse the old roral soul ' Europe's best hope Is her sward-edge by Victory set ! She shall dash Freedom's foes adown Death's bloody slope. For there's his in the Old Land yet!

And though we must entirely disclaim any wish to raise war ery on this or any other great contest of nations, we must frankly say that no shall nover ecase to regard the day as a very sad one in which England suffers her first shock of defeat from the combination against which sho is now arrayed. For mixed up as she may be with commental complica- i tions, which undoubtedly divert the issue from being a naked one between freedom and despotism, she is the only European power that possesses orangelical truth and civil liberty and when she sinks they sink with her. And let it be recollected what it is sho proposes to do, and what it is that Russia professes to do, so far as Turkey is concerned. By the first general religious toleration of all Christian commutions is to be first exected—by the second the substitution of the Russic-Greek Church as a national ostablishment. And between the two, though we again expose ourselves to the charge of being Turks, we must choose the first. The gross ignorances, the almost uniform immorality, and the intolerant temper of the Russian ecclesiastical authorities, have been but two pointedly developed to make us look upon their ascendancy in Turkey otherwise than as a measure which is beset with consequences far more per-nicious than that of the general horizontal teleration proposed by Lord Stratford de Redeliffe. And in-dependently of this, as between the two economies, we must still consider that that of a conscitutional and limited monarchy,—supposing a republic to be out of the question.—is far more suitable as a scaffolding for the establishment of religion, than an autocracy of the Russian stamp. The interests of freedom and of true religion, are, to our minds, indissolubly connected; and notwithstanding the union of the Democratic and Angle-Catholic extremes in their present theiferous partizanship for Russia, we must still be permitted to say that "Turk" or not, we shall continue to unite with the whole of our Mether Church in the prayer that by the success of the arms of Great Britain, her national religion and her national institutions may obtain at least a feothoid m ; those lands where was first planted that Gospel on which both of them so mainly rely.

ENGLAND.

THE ROYAL MARINES.—This corps, now some 15,000 strong, is, it is said, to be changed into a rule corps; and as, on landing, they are usually the first to be employed in skirmishing and placed in the post of Canger, it sout proper that they should be clothed and around in the most effective and convenient man-

Prisoners or WAR.—A mutual agreement has been entered into by England and France, as to the manner in which the expenses of maintaining prisoners of war shall be shared between the two countries.

PROMOTIONS FROM THE RANKS.—The War-iffice has just made nine sergeant-majors, five sergeants, bree quartermaster-sergeants, four colour and one company sergeants, energie without purchase.

STUPENDOUS NEW DOLE.—The plans for a new dock, six hundred ket in length, in Parismouth Dockyard, are ordered to be immediately prepared, it being resolved to construct a dock to communicate from the harbour to the steam-basin dock now in use. This is addition and make Portsmooth Dockyard the most i complete in lack accommodation of any of her Majes-ty's naval establishments-Hampolic. Independent.

PROPOSED NEW ENGLISH BISHUPRICS.—Arrangements me in progress for prejuring a sche actor the crection of two new English dioceses, by the sub-division of the snes of Lincoln and St. David's. It is propoint to divide the a cress of Lincoln by the appointment of a Bishop of Southwell. The second bishopric proposed to be formed is that of Brecon.

DISSENT AT OXFORD .- A writer in he Cambridge Press remarks :- "I hear that some dezen youths from the wealthier portions of the dissenting party are about to enter at Oxford; and that inquiries are even being i made by the head of a highly respectable family of Jews. At University College, Cambridge, Jowish souths, who have been success of, have, I believe, lodge ed and boarded at an establishment intended-more especially, at all events—for youths of a Protestant sect. No harm has resulted that I hear oi. The youthful Goldsmit may not have become a christian; but most anaredly his companions have not become Jone."

THE WAR IN THE EAST.

NEW DESTINATION OF ENGLISH TROOPS-The Montieur of preservies states from Bucharest that a devision of the English army was expounned at Oblirechti in Wellachia. Omar Pasha has required 33,000 raone of broad por diem to o delivered at Bucherest Oblistchii, and Ursitzien respectively. A second bridge of look is in course of writer to a from Lynghia to the opposite shore of the Danube,

A deep and settled gloom seems to have superseded the buoyant and enthusiastic spirit with which the adied forces astemated the phlegmatic Turks on their first appearance in the East. When may now hope that the executive heat will yield to a more vigorous and bracing a mosphere. for there can be no doubt that the executive heat will yield to a more vigorous and bracing a mosphere. for there can be no doubt that the lastitude satied by the recent intensely hot weather has greatly aided the ravages of the cholors. the cholera, CONFLAGRATION AT VARNA .- Prodictes of valour were exhibited by all parties; the French Sappers and Miners in particular, distinguished themselves in a special manner. The fire burnt with fury, and wes only put down after ten hours arthous labour, destroying opwards of four hundred suops and houses and three modues. The English and Erench commissariat stores have suffered considerably; but the loss, which, according to the general estimate, is up-wards of £500,000 sterling, falls chiefly upon the storekeepers, canteen-owners, and spirit and wine venders. The Turks have lost 30,000 gallons of oil and a very large quantity of soap. The escape of the powder-magazines seems truly wonderful; the flames were raging in the surrounding houses, and the igni-tion of the stores seemed inevitable when the houses suddenly fell in and so stifled the flames; and, altho the exterior walls were heated and covered with flakes of burning material, the interior was untouched. investigation will be instituted into the cause of the coullagration.

RUSSIAN REPORT OF THE DEPEAT AT DARS. The loss of the enemy is not yet correctly ascertained, but he left more than 2,000 dead upon the field. Such a sanguinary battle, in which one hundred and forty pieces of canton were fred on both sides during four hours, could not feil to occasion us serious losses, par-"healarly as the Turks displayed a resistance such as the oldest of our soldiers had never witnessed from them before. We had four superior officers, seventeen subaltorn officers, and five hundred and sixty-eight men killed; one general, nine superior officers, seventy subaleern officers, and 1,831 men wounded.

TARBIZOND.—A strong division of the Russian sumy, it appears, advanced from Erivan on the 23th of July, and attacking the corps commanded by Selim Pasha, completely nonted them. The Russians took four risects of cannon, and got pessession of the town of Hojazal. The remainder of Selim Pacha's corps retreated to Van.

THE LOWER DANUDE .- Omar Pasha is likely, during the present campaign, to undertake offensive operations against the Russians at Tutschkow and Imail indeed, it is said that as soon as the Austriana are in Bucharest, the Torkish head quarters will be removed from Rustchuk to Babs-Dagh, in the Dobruds-

The Moniteur annuances that the Governments of France and England, by common consent, have re-selved that the fortifications in the Aland Islands shall be destroyed, and the islands exacusted.

The plain English of this amount ement is, that Sweden still persists in its original policy of remaining neutral. The delay which has occurred in the taking or at least in the publishing-of the resolution of the Allied Governments, lends probability to the reports that have been circulated of attempts to induce the Court of Sweden to take part against Russia. If the statement in the Moniteur is to be relied upon, it seems necessarily to imply that the Alands and Findensia. land are not to be restored to Sweden at present. It is to be hoped that no intention is entertained of ultimately, under any circumstances, restoring them telluserecting them into an independent, neutral state like Switzerland or Belgium—under the guarantee of the Great Powers.

The Chamber of Peasants in Sweden have memorialized the King to take such measures as shall prevent the Isles of Aland from returning under the dominion

STATE OF DENMARK - COPENHAGEN, WEDNES-DAY .- A crowded meeting of the members of the Consututional Society was held last evening. Three thousand persons, including men of all ranks, wore pro-Embusiania er eletions were passed, supporting the ground law, denouncing the desposism of the octrol, and defying the Ministry. All the persons present columnly agreed to defend the Parliament in impraching the Cabinet, and to refuse the payment of taxes until this step had been taken. A sum amounting to several thousand dollars was subscribed in the room towards forming a fund for guarantering the support of discharged civilians, Members of Parliement, and for assisting the constitutional press. The name of the King was not mentioned during the pro- his to coolings. At the close, loud cheers were given for the the constitution. The Ministry consinue to the observables then, as well as Members 17 ment holding office. The consequence is that Press contains the Constantinople of the resignations are taking place.

NEW DRUNSWICK. PROVISION FOR ORPHAN CHILDREN -- A gree deal has been said recently by the Press and other wise, about the liberality of the Catholic Bidep's providing an Orphan Asylum, to meet the necessite of those who suffered bereavement by the late affe tive variation of God.
