

Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me hath everlasting life.—John vi. 47.

John iii. 14.

It was only a cross,
And the symbol of shame;
But it stands as a pledge
Of life through His name.

Cant. v. 2; Rev. iii. 20.

It was only a knock,
But it rouses some saint;
Not refreshment He asks,
But for love He is faint.

Matthew ix. 13.

It was only a call,
But salvation is meant;
Unto all who are lost
Is the glad message sent.

Hebrews iii. 13.

It is only a day,
That the Saviour will wait.
When as Judge He returns
It shall then be—too late.

AN INFIDEL said: "There is one thing that mars all the pleasures of my life." "Indeed," replied his friend, "what is that?" "I am afraid the Bible is true. If I could know for certain that death is an eternal sleep, I should be happy; my joy would be complete. But here is the thorn that stings me, this is the sword that pierces me—If the Bible is true I am lost forever."

If we stand right with Heaven, every cross is a blessing; and if we be in God's disfavour, every one of his His benefits is a judgment.

I give unto them eternal life; and they shall never perish.

John x. 28.

YOUNG MEN'S BIBLE CLASS

Every Monday Evening,

AT 8 O'CLOCK.

ALL INVITED.

TURNING THE TABLES.

 CANNOT forget the confusion into which I saw a conceited young fellow thrown once when he turned to an aged minister, and, as if challenging discussion, said, "I am told you believe in the inspiration of the whole Bible?" The good man answered quietly, "Oh yes, my friend; what do you believe in?" A little laugh covered the defeat, but he continued, "But you certainly know what the great scholars say about it?" when again the calm answer met him, "Somewhat; but what do they say to you about your soul?" Now the inquirer grew restive. "They say you are leading men along with a farthing taper in your lantern." To this the aged preacher only said, "Do they say men would see any better if we would let them put the taper out?"
