The Temperance Cause.

TEMPERANCE AND INSURANCE.

WE understand that the Briton Life Association (agent, Mr. E. Fox, stockbroker, 51 Dame-street,) allows 10 per cent discount off premiums of total abstainers. The Pall Mall Gazette says:—"Temperance advocates are often accused of being sentimental persons with a preference for vague generalities over hard facts. Insurance companies, however, may fairly be credited with a pretty shrewd notion of which way the wind is really blowing, and some of these companies must (it appears from a paper read by Mr. Robinson, the Chief Constructor of the Navy, to the British Association) be ranked for the future along with the 'sentimentalists' on the side of total abstinence. No doubt (as one of the subsequent speakers pointed out) the experiment of temperance assurance has not yet been tried long enough to give any finality to Mr. Robinson's conclusions, but his figures are too remarkable to be passed over. Besides the evidence of all the mutual life assurance societies, which keep the statistics of 'general' and 'temperance' lives distinct, points in the same direction, and shows that while in the general section the number of actual deaths very nearly reaches that of the expected deaths, the number in the temperance section falls far short of it. It is no wonder, therefore, that one society should give total abstainers an immediate advantage of from £3 to £7, according to age, on each £1,-200 assurance.

A SALOON keeper in Miamisburg, O., is circulating his business card with the following on its back:

"To whom it may concern: Know ye, that by the payment of $225 I am permitted to retail intoxicating liquors at my saloon in this city. To the wife who has a drunkard for a husband, or a friend who is unfortunately dissipated, I say emphatically give me notice in person of such case or cases in which you are interested and all such shall be excluded from my place. Let mothers, fathers, sisters, and brothers do likewise, and their requests will be kindly regarded. I pay a heavy tax for the privilege of selling, and I want it distinctly understood that I have no desire to sell to drunkards or miners, or to the poor or destitute."

That is to say, after I have made your husband or father, or son or friend, a drunkard, I will not sell him any more liquor if you request me to stop! This is the curious way in which men sometimes deceive themselves and think they are virtuous when doing very wrong.

THERE is scarcely any place of trust that will, in these days, be intrusted to a drinking man. Not because a drinking man is more dishonest at heart than others, but because he cannot be trusted. He is more liable to neglect his business than is a sober man, and the temptations to use his employer's money is much greater. Young men who are just starting out in life should remember this.

What is Catarrh?

What is Catarn?

(From the Mail, Can., Dec, 14th).

Catararria is a nuco-purulent discharge Caussed by the presence and development of the vegetable parasite amoba in the internal lining membrane of the nose. This parasite is only developed under favorable circumstances, and these are:—Morbid state of the blood, as the blighted corpusole of tubercle, the germ poison of syphilis, mercury, tuxemen, from the retention of the effeted matter of the skin, suppressed perspiration, badly ventilated sleeping apartments, and other poisons that are germinated in the blood. These poisons keep the internal lining membrane of the nose in a constant state of irritation, ever ready for the deposit of the seeds of these germs, which spread up the nostrils and down the fauces, or back of the throat, causing ulceration of the throat, up the eustachian tubes, causing dearness; burrowing in the vocal cords, causing hoarseness; usurping the proper structure of the bronehist tubes, ending in pulmonary consumption and death.

Many attempts have been made to discover a cure for this distressing disease by the use of inhaliants and other ingenious devices, but none of these treatments can do a particle of good until the parasites are either destroyed or removed from the mucus-tissue. Some time since a well-known physician of 40 years' standing, after much experimenting, succeeded in discovering the necessary combination of ingredients which never fails in absolutely and permanently eradicating this horrible disease, whether standing for one year or forty years. Those who may be suffering from the above disease should, without delay, communicate with the business manuages, Messrs. A. H. DIXON & SON, 305 King street west, Toronto, and get lair particulars and treatise free by enclosing stamp.
