We were in error last week in stating with reference to the fire at Mr. P. Egan s house, that the furniture was insured. Unfortunately this was not the case, or rather Mr. Egan had omitted to transfer his insurance from his former residence consequently the damage was a total loss. Mr. Egan speaks very highly of the services rendered by the men from the south fire hall to whose exertions and skill he attributes the fact that the building and contents were not totally

Towards the end of last week three patients from the South entered St. Boniface Hospital: Mr. Hormisdas Dupas and Mrs. Pierre Dupas from Letellier, and Mrs. Landry from Morris. Mr. Hormisdas Dupas has been ailing for three years. Before going to the hospital he spent one day with his wife's parents as St. Bopiface.
