BRIEFLETS.

Rev. Father Martin, pastor of St. Eustache, returned to his parish last Friday, after a month's sojourn in the east.

Harvesting throughout the Province is about completed and threshing is well under way. With the good prices at which the market is opening, and in view of lessons taught them by the past experience it is altogether likely that the farmers will rush their grain in at the earliest possible movement and the railways will soon be taxed to their utmost capacity carrying the grain to the East.

Rev. F. Messier, pastor of St. Boniface, returned from Montreal on Friday last. His mother, seventy-eight years old, died quite suddenly the previous Saturday. She had been an invalid for a long time and her last request to her son was to pray that she might die a good death. He had the consolation of performing the funeral rites in his native parish of Longueuil. The Review extends to Father Messier its respectful sympathy.

It is estimated that Dr. Nansen will make about $150,000 out of his Arctic book. So far editions have appeared in England, America, Germany, and a Dutch edition is nearly ready, and the work is appearing in Norway in parts, the only method in which an expensive book can be sold in that economical country. Further, there will be issues in French and in Bohemian. There has been a wide demand for it in the British colonies.

The town of Juneau (Alaska), of which we hear so much these days, was founded by a French Canadian of St. Paul L'Hermite, Que., where many of his relatives still reside. Lake Laberge and River Laberge in the Klondike region are also named after Michel Laberge, of Chateaugay, Que., where he still lives after exploring most of the Yukon country. Laberge made a nice fortune in furs and returned to his home in 1876.

Pamphlet by an Oblate Missionary in Ceylon.

The Rev. D. Wilkinson, O.M.I., has published in pamphlet form the able articles which he recently contributed to the CEYLON CATHOLIC MESSENGER in defense of the Primacy and Prerogatives of the Pope attacked by the INDEPENDENT newspaper. The pamphlet is divided into seven chapters, viz: 1—The Ancient British Church. 2—St. Peter was at Rome. 3—St. Peter was Bishop of Rome. 4—The Supremacy of St. Peter. 5—The Primacy of St. Peter's successors. 6—The Rival claimants of the Papacy. 7—The Rule of Faith. The whole subject receives a clear and convincing exposition at the hands of Father Wilkinson. ("The Catholic Church Vindicated." Colombo: St. Lucia's Press)—MISSIONARY RECORD O.M.I.

Born a Pagan.

Writing to the MONITOR, San Francisco, a subscriber asks, "Is Father Yorke a convert?" Father Yorke is editor of the MONITOR, and he replies:
ENQUIRER.—Yes, Father Yorke is a convert. He was born a pagan, and at the advanced age of two days, five hours and thirteen minutes, by standard time, he became a Catholic.

Hazy Geography.

A good deal of the Alaskan "news" that finds its way into print nowadays is worthless. For instance, the statement is going the rounds that the Jesuit missions in Alaska, particularly the one at which Fr. Barnum has been stationed, are near or in the heart of the Klondyke gold region. Fr. Barnum's mission is at the mouth of the Yukon, thousands of miles away from the Klondyke district, and the nearest mission to that district is Circle City. The heart of the gold mines moreover, is not in Alaska, but some fifty miles within the British possessions in the Canadian Northwest.—CATHOLIC COLUMBIAN.

Saved his Boy.

A plain statement from Mr. Robt. McLeod, of Galt.

His Little Son Was Paralyzed on One Side, and Doctor's Treatment Did Him No Good—Dr. Williams' Pink Pills Were Given and Effected a Thorough Cure.

From the Galt Reporter.

Mr. Robt. McLeod is a gentleman well known in the town of Galt and throughout the district. In conversation with a member of the Reporter staff recently, he consented to make public the facts concerning the illness and restoration to health of his little boy. He said:—

"Yes, I believe that had it not been for Dr. Williams' Pink Pills my little boy would not have been living to-day. Willie, who is ten years of age, was taken with an illness that developed into paralysis of the left side. He had the best medical aid within my reach, but nothing seemed to benefit him. He got so bad that a pin could be run into his left hand to the bone without his feeling it in the least. If he attempted to walk he could only get over the ground by dragging his left foot behind him; he had no power in it whatever. One night I was feeling pretty blue about him. I felt that he was going to be an invalid all his life, and I viewed things in their worst light. On this particular night I put on my hat with the intention of going out to take a quiet walk, but just as I got to the door I saw lying on a step a pamphlet. I pecked it up listlessly, and saw it was an advertising book of the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co. I only read a few words when the conviction seized me that here was something that might possibly benefit my boy. I at once went down to Mr. Ferrah's drug store and purchased a box of the pills. By the time he had taken two boxes the color had come back into his hand and arm, and by the time he had taken half a dozen boxes he was cured, and now he is better than he ever was before in his life, and as hearty and strong as any boy in the town. Yes, sir, I believe Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are a wonderful medicine."

BUYING DRUGS

Is entirely a matter of confidence, as in no other business is sophistication easier; nor does any other avenue afford so ready a means of disposing of worthless articles. You can buy a pair of shoes for $1 or $10—it's entirely a matter of quality. There is as much difference in the quality of drugs as there is in shoes, except in purchasing one you can use your own judgment, in buying the other you are entirely dependent upon the honesty and judgment of the Druggist.
In one case it is only a matter of comfort and appearance, and in the other frequently of LIFE or DEATH.
You can always rely with the utmost confidence on the DRUGS and Medicines which you get at
