

they fail to agree, by the Chairman of the International Wheat Council.

(b) Persons from countries whose Governments are parties to this Agreement shall be eligible to serve on the advisory panel, and persons appointed to the advisory panel shall act in their personal capacities and without instructions from any Government.

(c) The expenses of the advisory panel shall be paid by the Council.

4. The opinion of the advisory panel and the reasons therefor shall be submitted to the Council which, after considering all the relevant information, shall decide the dispute.

5. Any complaint that any exporting or importing country has failed to fulfill its obligations under this Agreement shall, at the request of the country making the complaint, be referred to the Council which shall make a decision on the matter.

6. No exporting or importing country shall be found to have committed a breach of this Agreement except by a majority of the votes held by the exporting countries and a majority of the votes held by the importing countries. Any finding that an exporting or importing country is in breach of this Agreement shall specify the nature of the breach and, if the breach involves default by that country in its guaranteed quantity, the extent of such default.

7. If the Council finds that an exporting country or an importing country has committed a breach of this Agreement it may, by a majority of the votes held by the exporting countries and a majority of the votes held by the importing countries,
