

of jobs are being created and investment rates are increasing. This package includes two brochures that describe Canada's investment climate. The Right Place at the Right Time profiles Canada's economic conditions and place in the North American market; summarizes its technology, energy, transportation, and communications sectors; and provides information on workforce and financial systems. The Right Attitude describes business and immigrant programs; banking, credit and taxation systems; business requirements; and labour legislation. (English, French, Italian, German, 1986)

The Spirit of Enterprise

This kit contains an application form for investors wishing to do business in Canada; explains the role of Investment Canada, the federal agency that facilitates foreign investment; and describes the types of investments requiring notification to or review by the Canadian government. (English, French)

The Canadian Edge Brochure

This brochure describes and contains an order form for "The Canadian Edge", a comprehensive collection of data on doing business in Canada. Investors, industrial developers and investment consultants will all benefit from referring to "The Canadian Edge's" 1 000 pages of up-to-date text and tables, which succinctly analyze and summarize a multitude of investment data. (English, French)

