

SHANGHAI (1)

George Sutton Patterson

C

CG

21 Apr. 1949

26 Apr. 1949 (p)

5 Jan. 1952 (2)

(1) Opened as a Commercial Office in 1906; transformed into a Consulate in 48. Elevated to status of Consulate General 26 Apr. 1949. ~~Y~~

(2) On that day, the Consulate General was formally closed, and so ended Canada's representation in the Republic of China.

Following Canada's recognition of the People's Republic of China, an Embassy was opened in Beijing (Peking) on 11 Jan. 1971 under the direction of John Macleod Fraser as Chargé d'Affaires a.i. For further details, see entries under CHINA above.

Territory included all of mainland China.