

- (b) equal to or greater than the minimum period identified in accordance with paragraph 6 for that person, but has accumulated both a period of residence in Australia and a Canadian creditable period which, when added together, are equal to or greater than the minimum period required for qualification for that benefit by the legislation of Australia, that Canadian creditable period shall be deemed, for the purposes of a claim for that benefit, to be a period in which that person was an Australian resident.

2. In the case of a claim by a person for an invalid pension or pension payable to a widow, paragraph 1 shall apply only to a Canadian creditable period accumulated by that person under the Canada Pension Plan.

3. For the purposes of a claim by a person for a pension payable to a widow, that person shall, subject to Article 9, be deemed to have accumulated a Canadian creditable period for any period for which her spouse accumulated a creditable period under the Canada Pension Plan but any period during which the person and her spouse both accumulated Canadian creditable periods under the Canada Pension Plan shall be taken into account once only.

4. For the purposes of paragraph 1, where a person:
- (a) has been an Australian resident for a continuous period which is less than the minimum continuous period required by the legislation of Australia for entitlement of that person to a benefit; and
 - (b) has accumulated a Canadian creditable period in two or more separate periods that exceed in total the minimum period referred to in subparagraph (a),
