

ANNEX I

EXCHANGES IN THE SOCIAL SCIENCES AND HUMANITIES

SECTION III

The Social Sciences and Humanities Research Council of Canada and the Academy of Sciences of the USSR agreed to the administrative and financial conditions given below for participants under Section III:

1. the sending side will pay the scholars' travelling expenses to and from the point of arrival - in Canada, Montreal, and in the USSR, Moscow;
2. the receiving side will pay the scholars' travelling expenses inside the host country from Montreal and Moscow respectively, providing such travel is in accordance with the work programme approved by the receiving side;
3. the receiving side will arrange for participants to be met upon arrival and seen off on departure, and to be given all the assistance they require for accommodation or further travel in transit to their destination;
4. for each participant the receiving side will pay for duplication and photocopying of materials and obtaining literature in the field of the visitor's research programme up to $200.00 in Canada and an equivalent sum of roubles in the USSR according to the official rate of exchange on January 1st of each year. The cost of shipping via ordinary international post books and documents purchased by the visitor out of the allowance referred to above is the responsibility of the host country.
5. the receiving side will provide free accommodation to the scholar