

ENDNOTES

1. Figure represents bilateral and multilateral humanitarian assistance disbursed by Global Affairs Canada.
2. Figure represents those countries affected by complex emergencies, food insecurity, non-recurrent health epidemics, and natural disasters.
3. The matched amount includes $30.5 million of disbursed funds and $21.2 million of committed funds. Information prepared by CFO-Stats (SWS) at Global Affairs Canada (June 2016).
4. Information prepared by CFO-Stats (SWS) at Global Affairs Canada (June 2016).
5. Bilateral assistance consists of all assistance, including most humanitarian assistance and country and regional programming, which is not institutional support to multilateral organizations, also known as core funding to multilateral institutions.
6. Source: OECD International Development Statistics (2016).
7. Canadian partners include non-governmental organizations, colleges and universities, municipalities, cooperatives, professional associations and private sector organizations.
8. Numbers are cumulative as of Gavi's launch in 2000. Source: Gavi, the Vaccine Alliance (2016).