Sir Arthur Currie,
Principal, McGill University
City

Dear Sir;-

As the January Bar examinations are now approaching, I respectfully call your attention to the question of specially watching over the interests of the students of the McGill Faculty of Law, so that the injustice they suffered in the July examination whereby only 41 per cent of English were allowed to pass, compared with 72 per cent of the French, be not repeated. The friends of our students will not be satisfied without an equal percentage of English being passed.

I am, dear sir,

Faithfully yours.

W. D. Lighthall
