INTERCOLONIAL
RAILWAY of Canada.

IN the Provinces by the sea, and it has decidedly the advantage of picturesqueness; it is the "All Rail Route" connecting the Cities of St. John and Halifax, and it is the "All Rail Route" through Cape Breton, the Switzerland of Canada, with its famous Bras D'or Lakes, and it connects with all Steamboat Lines to Prince Edward Island, "the Garden of the Gulf of St. Lawrence." In another direction, speeding away north, the train skirts for miles the curves of the beautiful Baie des Chaleurs, and leaving the sea-shore follows the course of the far-famed Restigouche and Metapedia Rivers, thence along the shore of the mighty St. Lawrence, where an ever changing panorama of river, lake and mountain scenery culminates in a magnificent view of Quebec, crowned by its historic citadel.

THIS Railway furnishes to the general traveller all the comforts and convenience of modern invention, while the pleasure-seeker, angler and sportsman find few, if any, equals in the numerous summer resorts and places of interest which it reaches. The Hotels are comfortable and homelike, and the rates exceedingly low. Special low fares afford the tourist an unusually interesting trip at a very small cost.

Splendid Sea Bathing. Pure Air. Magnificent Scenery.
