

ST. LAWRENCE HALL

CACOUNA, P.Q.

CANADA.

This elegant and spacious hotel, situated at the beautiful and fashionable Canadian watering place on the Lower St. Lawrence, one-hundred and twenty miles below Quebec, opposite the mouth of the far-famed Saguenay River, is open from June to September.

CACOUNA is a great natural sanitarium. Its salubrity, elevation and average summer temperature, as well as salt sea breezes and balmy air, make it specially attractive. The strong air produces sweet sleep and perfect rest. — Sea Bathing, Cycling, Boating, Sailing, Athletics, Dancing, Concerts, etc

PRICES.—For transient, $2 to $3 per day, $10 and upwards per week, according to location of rooms. Special rates for families for the season.

Ask for illustrated pamphlet, with diagram of the hall.

Re Advertising.

Don't follow my advice

if, in your judgment, it does not seem good. But years of experience in the handling of large and small advertising appropriations must have made my advice worth something to a prospective advertiser. The beauty of it is that IT COSTS NOTHING.
