

FARMERS INSTITUTE

A public meeting for the discussion of topics of interest to Farmers, Stock-men, Gardeners, Bee-keepers and others, will be held under the auspices of the West Durham Farmers' Institute,

In the Council Chamber, BOWMANVILLE,

TUESDAY, DEC. 1st,

to begin at 1:30 p. m., promptly.

PROGRAMME: AFTERNOON SESSION.

Opening address---The President.

"Fodder Corn and the Silo," by MR. GEO. HARCOURT, B. S. A. of Toronto. Discussion to be led by MR. J. M. JONESS, of Retreat Dairy, and MR. ROBERT FIELDING, Bowmanville.

Address, "Advantages of Bee-Keeping" by MR. F. F. HOLTERMAN of Brantford. Discussion to be led by MR. FRED. FOSTER, Norwood Place, MR. THOS. J. COLE, Maple Grove, and MR. J. W. SPARLING, Bowmanville.

Address, "Stock Breeding and Feeding," MR. GEO. HARCOURT. Discussion to be led by MR. SAM'L ALLIN, Bowmanville, and MR. THOS. BAKER, Solina.

EVENING SESSION.

Begins at 7:30.

Address, "The Future Farmer," MR. G. HARCOURT. Discussion to be led by MR. W. B. COUCH, and DR. McLAUGHLIN, Bowmanville.

Address, "Poultry on the Farm," MR. R. F. HOLTERMAN. Discussion to be led by MR. W. R. KNIGHT, Bowmanville, MR. I. L. BROWN Cedar Valley Farm, Hampton.

The Department of Agriculture having deputed these well-known specialists in their respective subjects to attend these meetings and open the discussions, all farmers and others who may be interested in agricultural matters are most cordially invited to attend these meetings. Discussion and questioning invited on all subjects.

Ladies are requested to attend the evening session.

M. A. JAMES,
President.

H. C. HOAR,
Secretary.