

Jones and Mrs. Jones. The Home stands in a charming situation, on the Lower Lachine road. The land and building cost $20,000; and towards its maintenance Mr. Jones, the founder, promised $1,000 per annum during his life, and certain permanent endowment at his death which occurred not long ago in England, while Mr. A. F. Gault, promised $1,000 per annum for four years. The deed of gift was presented at the opening by Mr. Wm. Ryder (on behalf of Mr. R. A. A. Jones), to whom in an address the Dean of Montreal made suitable reply.

THE LADIES' HOME.—This is one of the most important Institutions belonging to the Diocese. At first it was a parochial charity in connection with the Cathedral for nearly twenty years.

In 1870 the Vestry gave notice that it could no longer alone bear the expense of its maintenance. Then Bishop Oxenden reorganized it, it being understood "that any inmates surviving the change from a parochial to a Diocesan institution would have a home for the remainder of their lives.

The Home was incorporated in 1875 and in 1877 the first property came from Bishop Oxenden from moneys collected by him for a building to be used for "Ladies in reduced circumstances." This was in 1878. The Institution seemingly not prospering in 1887, continued thus to 1890 when a handsome property was acquired in Guy Street and the Archbishop having the disposal of the large fund of the late Ogden Andrews gave $50,000 to free for ever the Ladies' Home, the rest to found the Andrews Home. Thus this most excellent Institution is now on a firm basis, and as it has done more good in the past than we can calculate, so it will continue its good work in the future, thanks to the noble efforts of the late Archbishop and Primate.
