

Aboyeur at 100 to 1 placed First in the Epsom Derby

FAVORITE FIRST IN EPSOM DERBY AND IS DISQUALIFIED

Jockey Reiff on Craganour Bumped Thruout Race, Which Was Given to Aboyeur, a Rank Outsider—Suffragette Deliberately Grasps Rein of King's Entry and Will Likely Die.

EPSOM, England, June 4.—Today's race for the Derby, the blue ribbon of the British turf, was one of the most sensational on record. It was made memorable by a daring militant suffragette outrage, in which a woman was terribly injured while trying to stop King George's horse, Anmer, when he was running at full speed around Tattenham Corner; by the disqualification for foul play of the favorite, Aboyeur, after he had passed the winning post first, and by the award of the race, with its valuable stakes of $25,000, to a rank outsider, Aboyeur, a 100 to 1 chance. Louisa, 10 to 1, second. King George, Queen Mary and a large assembly of royalties were witnesses of these exciting incidents, which caused something like consternation among the immense crowds brought together by the openness of the race and the fine weather.

While the interest was at its most tense point, just as the first horses were turning Tattenham Corner into the stretch for home, a woman rushed out from the dense crowd and threw herself in front of Anmer and another horse, Agadir, and tried to interfere with the progress of the race by seizing Anmer's reins and endangering not only her own life, but also two jockeys.

Suffragette Assault.
Fortunately, the horse was at the end of the string, or the consequences of the woman's action might have been more serious. Agadir, on whose back was the jockey Earl, passed by in safety and unhurt, but the woman managed to cling to Anmer's reins, and brought down both horse and rider. The result was that Jones, the King's jockey, received injuries necessitating his removal on an ambulance, while the woman was thrown under Anmer's hoofs and terribly kicked. She was taken to a hospital, unconscious, to a hospital, suffering from severe injuries to her head. Suffragette papers are said to have been found in her possession, and a suffragette flag bound round her body. Her name was given as E. Davison, and her age as 35 years.

Jones, the jockey, suffered from a nasty cut in the head, but his injuries otherwise were not serious.

Meanwhile the race had come to a conclusion with an exciting struggle and a close finish. Aboyeur, who had been disqualification for bumping during the latter part of the race, but because they were satisfied the jockey Reiff, the jockey on the favorite, had unduly interfered with other horses' run, was a remarkable amount of unfair if not foul riding, and this year's Derby is regarded as one of the most unsatisfactory in the history of the event.

Unlucky Owner.
The racing career of Craganour's owner, J. Bruce Ismay, who is a brother of the late Lord Ismay, has been crowded with bad luck. The stewards recently ruled his trainer off the course for complicity in unfair riding. The general public upholds the judges in their disqualification of the horse.

There was a record attendance, an unusual feature being the advantage taken of the motor bus as a means of locomotion. Many of the spectators were attracted by aristocratic parties at a cost of $32 for the day, and they served as miniature grandstands.

A third sensational incident of Derby Day occurred in a later race, when the bay colt Pella, who had been the favorite, finished, directly in front of the grandstand, gave his jockey a bad fall and had to be killed in the presence of the king and queen.

After such an exciting afternoon the sight of a monoplane flying about the course failed to produce a thrill.

Betting on the Race.
Although the betting was very heavy no change occurred this morning in the odds against the various competitors. C. Bower Ismay's Craganour was still at 100 to 1 against; Aboyeur, at 100 to 1 against; D. R. Browning's Shogun was at 2 to 1 against; W. Raphael's Louisa, 10 to 1 against; A. Anmer's Nimbus at 3 to 1 against; Leopold De Rothschild's Day Comet at 100 to 1 against; and Lord Roschery's Trus at 100 to 1 against.

The fifteen runners got away to a good start. The rank outsider, Aboyeur, showed the way up the hill. Six furlongs from home Aboyeur was still leading, followed by Craganour, Alderford, Nimbus and Louisa. Rounding the famous Tattenham corner Aboyeur still held the command in front of Shogun and Craganour. Close home Craganour challenged, and in an exciting finish passed the post leading by only a head, with a neck separating second and third. The race was witnessed by a brilliant array of royalties, including King George and Queen Mary, the Duke of Connaught, Prince Arthur of Connaught, the Crown Prince and the Crown Princess of Sweden, the Grand Duke of Mecklenburg, the Prince Christian and Princess Victoria of Schleswig-Holstein.

NEW AMERICAN POLO TEAM TO DEFEND CUP

NEW YORK, June 4.—American polo team which will defend International Cup at Meadowbrook next Tuesday will line up as follows: No. 1, L. E. Stoddard; No. 2, Devereux Milburn; No. 3, Foxhall Keene; back, Malcolm Stevenson. A more sweeping change in the line-up of the cup defenders could hardly have been made. Not only have three members of the crack team of 1911 been entirely eliminated from this year's team, but Devereux Milburn has been shifted from back to No. 2. Harry Payne Whitney's resignation as captain is implied by the announcement that Foxhall Keene will succeed him both as captain and at No. 2. Both the Waterbury brothers have gone by the board.

BOWLERS OFF TO ENGLAND

The Canadian law bowlers, who are to play a series of games in England, Ireland, Scotland and Wales the next two months, left the city yesterday for Montreal, where they play a final game today prior to sailing for the old country. ## WESTERN CANOE ANNUAL REGATTA To Be Governed by Representative Committee—New Clubs Join.

The annual meeting of the western division of the Canadian Canoe Association was held last evening in the Toronto Canoe Club rooms, and the secretary was able to report that last year was one of the best in the history of the organization. The phenomenal growth of this branch has been very gratifying, and now they have succeeded in becoming the second largest member of the parent body.

Commodore R. Wilson was in the chair, and several members of the executive, including Secretary Dolan, were present. Messrs. Ross and Wolan, Beach Canoe; Longstaff and Gall, Parkdale C. C.; Levens and Sylvester, Toronto C. C.; Charles and Lloyd, Kew Beach A. A.; Haywood, Island A. A.; Ryan, Gravenhurst C. C.

A vote of thanks was tendered to Commodore Ryan and the Gravenhurst C. C. for the able way in which they conducted the regatta last year. All the officers were re-elected by acclamation. The regatta was held on the water from each of the clubs govern the regatta this year, instead of any one club holding it as in the past. This was decided upon after the suggestion had been made that the regatta be run on the Hanlan Memorial course at the island. In all probability this course will be the place it will be held on, providing the executive can secure the necessary assistance from the club on the following day.

Mr. Longstaff, T.C.C.; R. G. Ross, B.C.C.; Mr. Levens, T.C.C.; Mr. Haywood, B.C.C.; Mr. Lloyd, K.B.A.A.; Hugh Ryan, Gravenhurst C. C. were elected to the executive committee. The regatta will be held on Saturday, July 13, at the island. A convention one for all concerned and gives the finalists a chance to prepare for the big regatta at St. John's two weeks later. Mr. Smith of the Humber Bay C.C. tendered his application to join the association, but as applications can only be dealt with at general meetings of the C. C. A., his letter was sent on to the main body with a rider that they would like them to be given a chance to speak at the Dominion Day Regatta on July 13. Major Grant of Huntsville spoke of the formation of a canoe club in his town, and he will likely send in an application in the near future. The next executive meeting will be held on June 15.

COACHER AT THIRD IMPORTANT FACTOR

Joe Tinker Points Out How Quick and Keen Judgment Wins Close Games.

Joe Tinker of the Cincinnati Reds says there are ten men in a game of baseball. To the nine who hold regular positions Joe adds the coacher at third base, and asserts his role is every bit as important as that of any of the others. Of course, there are only nine on the side that is in the field, but the side at bat, according to the new manager of the Cincinnati Reds, is incomplete without a smart ballplayer in the box a few feet outside the third-base line.

"I don't consider the first-base coacher a very important person," says Joe. "He may be of some account in catching signs or in disturbing a pitcher, but he has only to take care of the runner at first base, and that runner is in a position to take care of himself. But the man over at third must be alive and nimble, and he must have been won because the third-base coacher knew when to have the runners take chances, and innumerable battles have been lost because 'bone' coachers held up runners or made them go ahead at the wrong time.

"With the Cubs we were always particular about our coachers at third base when a game was tight. I remember one occasion last spring. We were tied up to the eighth inning, and we got a man to second base with two out. King Cole was coach at third.

Where it Won a Game.

"Some of us said to Coach, 'Will he know enough to send him in?' Meaning, had Cole enough experience and knowledge of the game to coach the runner all the way from second on any sort of a hit. Chance immediately called Cole to the bench and sent out Artie Hofman in his place. The batter hit a ground ball to the infield. It was fumbled momentarily, and the play was made to first.

Where it Won a Game.

"I believe a great deal of the recent success of the New York Giants is due to McGraw's efficient coaching at third base too late to get the batter. Artie sent his man home without the slightest hesitation, and the winning run was scored, although the play at the plate was close.

"The other side didn't score in the next inning and it was our game, but if Hofman hadn't taken that chance at the right time we might have wound up in a tie or been beaten.

"Of course, some may suggest that we might have won any way; that the next batsman might have hit a home run if the runner had been held at third, but the only safe basis on which to figure baseball dope is results. One can never tell what might have happened, but always know what did happen and can make plans for the future.

Helped Giants a Lot.

"I believe a great deal of the recent success of the New York Giants is due to McGraw's efficient coaching at third

"TIFCO" BOWLING BALL

This ball is the best on the market, because it never slips, never loses its shape, always rolls true, hooks and curves easily, does not become greasy, is absolutely guaranteed, is cheaper than any other reputable patent ball, and complies with the rules and regulations of the A. B. C.

All first-class alleys are putting these balls on. Try one on the alley where you roll and you will never roll any other ball.

The New York club might have won two straight pennants without his advice, but I have seen lots of close games copied by his team because he knew how to coach.

Roger Bresnahan, the Cubs' new acquisition, always endeavors to shield his young pitchers from whatever cases of titles may be induced by the conversation of coaches at first and third bases.

Whenever I catch a coacher trying to upset my pitcher, Roger says, 'I don't encourage to my man as loudly as I can. And I usually succeed in drowning out the coacher.'

No one doubts this latter statement, for Roger certainly can make a noise when he wants to. In this respect he is the antithesis of John Kling. John usually talks, but his remarks are planes—no address—no address—no address or umpire. Bresnahan's voice can be heard all over the lot. Although Tinker and Chase are gone, the Cubs will hardly be known as a quiet bunch of athletes as long as they have Evers, Bresnahan and Zimmerman.
