

TOKIO MOB, DEEPLY INCENSED STORMS GOVERNMENT OFFICES DEMANDING WAR WITH CHINA

MURDER OF HIGH OFFICIAL AT FOREIGN OFFICE STIRS MASSES TO HIGH PITCH OF EXCITEMENT PUNISHMENT OF CHINESE OR RESIGNATION OF FOREIGN MINISTER IS CLAMOROUSLY URGED.

TOKIO, Sept. 7.—(Can. Press).—The assassination of Morihiro Abe, director of the political bureau of the Japanese foreign office, has inflamed the masses and today a dramatic chapter in the history of the new Japan was written.

Fifteen thousand persons gathered in mass meeting in Hibiyu Park, calling for military action against China. A majority of these marched to the foreign office and clamored for admission. They demanded the despatch of troops to China to take such measures as were necessary to obtain satisfaction for the killing of Japanese at Nanking, or, failing this, the resignation of the minister of foreign affairs, Baron Nobuaki Makino.

The speakers denounced the emphasis of Japanese diplomacy in connection with California and China, and insisted that the insult to the Japanese flag at Nanking should be wiped out. The manifestation was clearly an explosion of popular resentment against the ministry in its treatment of the California and Chinese questions.

Profiting by the lesson of the riots which followed the conclusion of peace between Russia and Japan, the government reduced the risk of violence today by refusing to allow a single soldier or policeman at the scene. The manifestants, many of whom were students, were orderly during the early part of the proceedings. A score of agitators, including a girl, declared Japanese diplomacy and declared that it had never contributed to the upbuilding of the empire and had ended in failure. The incidents in China were unbearable.

A Wild Stampede. Suddenly the cry to march on the foreign office was raised, and there was a general stampede, many persons barely escaping being crushed. The crowds surged thru the streets headed by the gesticulating leaders and reached the foreign office to find that the high iron gates were locked. Scores of the demonstrators pounded on the gates and called for them to be opened, but in vain. The order officials refused. A delegation was appointed, the members of which climbed the gates, and then issued a long parley.

Meanwhile the crowd was cheering but determined. It showered stones and bricks at the building.

PARLIAMENT TO INTERVENE IN THAW CASE?

As Legal Fight Hinges on Constitutional Aspect of Immigration Act, It is Not Unlikely That Dominion House Will Have to Back Up Measure.

MONTREAL, Sept. 7.—(Can. Press).—No move in the matter of seeking the liberation of Harry Kendall Thaw on bail will be made before the local courts, according to well informed sources here tonight. The friends of the slayer of Stanford White, now that they have brought the whole question to the attention of the court of the King's bench, will content themselves with awaiting developments in the ordinary course of justice.

Thaw may be brought here early this week or he may be detained at Costook until the 15th. This is a matter entirely in the hands of the Dominion authorities. Once landed in the city, he will be kept in the detention house of the immigration department, not in the city jail.

While awaiting a decision in his case, he will be provided with comfortable quarters, will be able to receive friends and will be allowed any luxuries he may care to pay for.

A Nominal Prisoner. He will be in no wise a prisoner except that he will be detained as an ordinary immigrant concerning the admissibility of whose entry into the country the immigration authorities entertain any doubt.

The whole litigation will resolve itself into a discussion of the question of whether the Canadian immigration act is or is not constitutional. The Thaw attorneys will contend that the act in its present form contains an infringement of the right of the individual to free locomotion. They will also represent the enactment as embodying an infringement of the habeas corpus act as well as of the Magna Charta.

Thus far it is only the immigration department which has been embroiled in the litigation, but it is not unlikely that parliament will have to intervene directly to back up the constitutionality of the act which it passed.

When the matter comes before the court of King's bench it will be heard by the full bench, which consists of Chief Justice Archambault, Justices Tremblay, Cross, Lavergne, Carroll and Gervais.

Of these, five constitute a full bench for an actual sitting. The attack on the constitutionality of the immigration act, it will be recalled, is no new proceeding, for when the act was before the house of commons a leading member of the Liberal party who now occupies a position on the bench, took a prominent part in denouncing the provisions of the measure, such denunciation being based on arguments which are advanced on the Thaw side of the fight in the present case.

He arrived here on Wednesday last, and with his usual adroitness, approached the manager of the Imperial Bank branch, with his letter of introduction from Saskatoon and departed with $2300 cash.

JEROME READY TO CONFRONT ACCUSERS

Will Be Tried on Charge of Gambling Today, Case Having Been Expedited by Mutual Consent—No Intimation From Ottawa as to Thaw's Removal.

COSTCOOK, Que., Sept. 7.—(Can. Press).—Unless a hitch occurs, Wm. Travers Jerome, especially retained by New York State to secure the return of Harry K. Thaw to Matteawan, will appear before District Magistrate Mulvena here, tomorrow afternoon, to answer to a charge of gambling. His case has been set for hearing on Thursday, Sept. 11, but both sides agreed tonight to advancing it, and Jerome announced over long distance telephone from Montreal, that he would be here without fail. He was on the point of leaving for New York under the impression that the case could not be called tomorrow.

Magistrate Mulvena of Sherbrooke, agreed to hear the case, discharging Justice of the Peace James McKee, who signed the warrant for Jerome's arrest and subsequently denounced him in court, when Jerome left town after being admitted to $500 bail.

Jerome was arrested last Thursday after playing poker with New York newspapermen and was released under $500 bail. He went to Montreal to prepare for the court battle when Thaw is arraigned on a writ of habeas corpus on Sept. 15.

No Word From Ottawa. No word had come here tonight from the department of the interior at Ottawa as to when Harry K. Thaw would be taken to Montreal preparatory to his hearing there on Sept. 15 before the King's bench on the writ of habeas corpus obtained by his counsel. The quarters here are comfortable and not cramped, and the immigration agents left in charge said again today that Thaw might be held until the last moment.

The department does not desire to stir up any more excitement about the Thaw case that is absolutely necessary," said T. B. Williams, one of the immigration officers. "There has been enough already and when Thaw is removed it will be as quietly as possible."

MRS. T. F. CAREY GETS A DIVORCE

Wife of Hamilton Man Given Absolute Divorce Decree and Custody of Her Child.

OTTAWA, Sept. 7.—(Special).—With a husband who as a violinist and leader of an orchestra connected with theatrical business troupes, is traveling almost continually, and who declared in unmistakable language to her that he had decided not to provide for her any longer, and she could look out for herself hereafter, then left her, never since returning to her, Mrs. Emily S. Carey of Hamilton, Ont., realized her only alternative to be the divorce court.

She married Thomas F. Carey in New York City, Aug. 24, 1909, then moved to Hamilton, where she all went well in their marital relations; but gradually they drifted apart in their affections, the husband becoming indifferent and neglectful of his wife until conditions finally became such that during a period of three years, he only gave her $5, and then only in response to a letter from her, asking for money for a pair of shoes.

"One of the Most Conscientious Men Who Ever Sat in City Council," Passed Away After Long Illness.

Alderman George McMurrich died yesterday at his home, 105 Madison avenue, after having been brought to Ontario on Saturday from his summer home at Detraint Point, in the General Hospital ambulance. Charlie Phair, the well-known horse trainer, died yesterday in St. Michael's Hospital, on the 49th anniversary of his birth. He was operated on Saturday for appendicitis, too late, however.

The late Mr. Phair never fully recovered from the loss of his son, Charlie, Jr., who was killed two years ago, while riding in a race in Trinidad. He was a first-class jockey early in his career, riding a Queen's Plate winner in '77, Amelia, owned by John White, at Prescot. He was among horses all his life, for many years successfully training his own stable. Of late years he was one of Mr. Orpen's trusted men, acting as starter and paddock judge at Dufferin Park and Hillcrest. He rode his last race about 12 years ago.
