EX-JOCKEY DROPS DEAD AT HAMILTON RACE TRACK

Ticket of Leave, Top Weight, Wins the Steeplechase-Horse Gossip.

HAMILTON, Aug. 17. - Rall Barr's good steeplechaser. Ticket of Leave, showed a good performance in the Liverpool Handicap Steeplechase, the feature event of the card offered by the Hamilton Jockey Club this afterthe Hamilton Jockey Club this afternoon. Ticket of Leave picked up 168 pounds, made all of his own pace, and won easily by a couple of lengths. The first three-races were won by outsiders—Mad River, Cheek and Malatine—all of which were at liberal odds. Ked wine, which fell during the running of the fith race yesterday, did not break his neck, but wrenched his back badly. Sou Perkins, once a famous break his neck, but wrenched his back badly. Sou Perkins, once a famous jockey, but recently employed as a clocker, dropped dead of heart disease here this morning. Perkins rode for Byron McClellan and other prominent owners. Tom Healy and James Fitz-simmons will send their stables from here to the Woodbine, and later to Montreal. Johnny Dyment, just returned from Alberta, will take up a few of the Dyment horses and race them at Blue Bonnets and Woodbine. Hugh Penny has turned Jockey Olsen over to P. S. P. Randolph. Weather clear; track fast. Sunmary:
