Miss Edith Sneigrove caught the bride's bouquet. Afterwards Captain el Cecil Sneigrove took the wedding party out to dinner at one of the clubs.
T In the Parkdale Presbyterian Church, Dum avenue, at half-past two o'clock is solemnized by Rev. Andrew Robertson, in the absence of the pastor, Rev. Logan Geggle, who has gone overseas, of Ruth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Coryell to Mr. Talbot Edward Torrance, B.A., son of Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Torrance, Gait. Mr. Newton presided at the organ and played softly thruout the service. The church was lovely with roses, snap-dragon and palms, and while the regis-ter was being signed Mr. Frank Con-verse Smith played the violin. The bride, who was given away by her father, wore a white sain and Georgette creps gown with tulle vell, orange blossoms and shower bouquet of white sweet peas and shower bouquet of white sweet peas and shower bouquet of white sweet peas and lilles of the valley. Her gift from the bridegroom was a plathum and pearl bar pin. Mrs. Charles S. Coryell was matron of honor, in pale green sain, veiled with silk net, and the bridesmaid, Miss Kathleen Farling, was in pink saitn and net, both wearing Leg-

Mr. Lansing declared that force is the only way "to end Prussianism, be-cause it is the only thing which the Prussian respects." Lord Reading rated the wisdom and justice of President Wilson as one of the greatest assets of the allies in the war. He termed England the home of "that justice which has won the ad-miration of the world," and said the colonists of pre-revolutionary days had brought it to this continent. "We wust have victory in the conflict with "that justice which has failed of her mission, and that had colonists of pre-revolutionary days had brought it to this continent. "We must have victory in the conflict with Germany," he declared. "for that wis-dom and justice which make for the peace and freedom of mankind." has failed of her mission, and that had she been true to the great principles which Christ expounded, humanity would not be reduced to such bar-barous welter. "No doubt there is truth in it," he declared. "Time and again the church has failed. It is, however, true that because she brought will be politically damned. Church Will De Mere-however, true that because she brought enlightenment to consciences of men so many nations have revolted against the atrocities of the Germans, and the atrocities of the Germans and have united in a supreme_effort to defend the weak and oppressed." The church, he claimed, had accom-plished splendid tasks in stimulating interest in recruiting, and in uphold-ing the morale of the Canadian ar-mies. Sermons and prayers, he claim-ed, have done more than all other agencies combined to cause the young men of the country to answer the call awaken the social conscience. She will do still more toward Christian-izing all life-economic, social and political, concluding the social ser-vice as a fundamental creed: For the purity of the home; for the right of the child to be well born, well developed child to be well born, well developed well reared, well educated; for the single standard of both sexes in morals and in economic opportunity; for mothers' pensions; for the appli-cation of Christian principles to in-dustrial relations; for a living wage, an eight-hour day, where possible, and the weekly rest day wherever practicable on Sunday; for conclita-tion and arbitration in industrial dis-putes; for the abatement and ulti-mate abolition of poverty; for insur-ance against accidents, sickness, un-employment and old age; for the connen of the country to answer the call to war. The moderator discussed the work of the Y.M.C.A. overseas, tho he made no reference to any of the charges which have been aired against that organization of late. He pointed to the Y as an example of the beneficent work of "The Church in Action," cre-diting the Y and the chaplain service with strengthening the soldiers against employment and old age; for the conthe many temptations to which they
